2. Phil has a cold, but he doesn't want to take cold medicine because it makes him sleepy. He asks his friends for cold remedies. Read his friends' suggestions and complete the table.

I.

Phil: Jane, what do you suggest for a bad cold?

Jane: Apple and carrot juice. I read it on the Internet. It is good for the flu and colds.

Phil: Thanks, but I don't think it is helpful.

II.

Phil: Do you have a cold remedy, Bob?

Bob: Yeah, I have a great cold remedy. My grandmother puts some honey, lemon, and cinnamon in warm water, then I drink it. It always works.

Phil: That's a good idea. I should try it.

Who makes the suggestion? Write down the names of the people.
How do Phil's friends learn about these remedies?
Does Phil think the suggestion is helpful? Write down YES or NO.
