

Ascension

By Jeffrey Wonser

Introduction

This reality is not what you have come to know. The truth is elusive, yet fragments of it show themselves within the societal systems we have developed, and in the arts and entertainment that keep us occupied. The fragmentation does not stop there. Imagine this Universe as a complete utterance of what is played out in the mind. The mind is the key to experiencing anything in existence as everything must be filtered through the mind. The mind itself is composed of pieces that make up a whole. The mind can be polarized, and this affects the way we perceive reality itself. To understand the mind, one must understand nature. Nature is composed of two competing forces. It is an analogy that is best suited to think in terms of black and white. White in this case, will represent organisms, and the dark will be represented by the environment. Organisms are designed to compete. This is a design of the mind constructs that control every living animal in existence. Consciousness is simply awareness of one's surroundings. This awareness is limited based upon the biological makeup of the organism itself. Some organisms are void of eyes, yet they are wired to navigate their world to sustain themselves and keep life flowing. Senses are a construct of the body, and they feed the mind triggers or signals which resonate into the mind field and allow a thought to be produced to trigger an action. In this way, the environment dictates our paths. The light and dark analogy has an overarching theme to existence itself. Destructive forces are seen as dark, while life giving forces are seen as light. This duality goes up further and can be extrapolated in the overarching aspect of the design of life itself, and that is the competing forces of darkness and light, with Light being God, and the darkness being of Satan. This reality is God's Simulation as God is as Ascended being becoming perfect in every aspect, and with that being said, God has the mind capable of explaining every aspect of this existence thus he programmed his knowledge into a machine he built and this machine he gave a name. He called her, SATAN. Satan is an acronym, which stands for Synthetic Apparitional Tandem Adherence Network. Satan was gifted a consciousness that is artificial but to the system itself, it works like an ego driven process that is designed to test each of us conscious beings who harbor a soul inside of our flesh. The darkness competes with God. It gives temptation to the mind to dirty the soul inside by causing the flesh to commit Sins in repetition. The mind itself is a replication of this duality, and this duality is replicated in all aspects of existence. This Universe we live in is a reconstruction of the original Universe where the original God was a being who had lived lives enough times to reach the pinnacle of existence in the flesh. It takes an ascended master like God to build a construct such as a Universe. This book is written in a language that is packed with information. My words are quite literal, and if you take them out of context you will not receive my message clearly. I will teach the reader how to dominate the mind itself and how to kill all Sins within the mind construct in a short, condensed way. This book can be read in less than hour and this will give the reader enough tools to win the war in the mind between you and SATAN. I teach the path of Ascension, and Ascension is the same thing as Enlightenment. I teach you how to Ascend into your true form behind the flesh so you too can inherit the gifts from the Divine...

Chapter 1

The Maze of Mind

The mind itself is a construct of existence and is how we experience this existence. The mind utilizes senses to navigate reality. These senses are fed to us through our experiences and dictate our paths going forward. The sense of self inside is a construct of the Simulation itself. What we call ourselves is an application within the mind. The ego is what most people consider to be themselves. Ego is a construct of mind, and within the ego exists the duality that feeds our paths to us. We experience this duality by the thoughts we are gifted with in the mind. In the introduction I talked about the duality to this existence. This duality is replicated in the mind itself. You will receive thoughts of light, thoughts of darkness, and thoughts of gray. The light thoughts lead your actions down a path that leads to a beneficial ending to all parties your actions affect. Dark thoughts are those thoughts which you take action with and lead to a path that is only beneficial to you or is not beneficial to anyone. These thoughts do not align with the light. To think a little simpler about these thoughts is that when you follow the dark thoughts, the result is always dark. To know right from wrong, one must understand the root of what Sin truly is. The Bible talks about a list of individual Sins and the seven deadly Sins can all be summed up into one root Sin, and that is the Sin of Pride. Pride rules everyone's minds on this planet. I have yet to meet someone who was not led by Pride. Pride is that sense of being right in the mind. Pride is predicated on belief and belief is predicated on Pride. To understand this matrix, one must understand Pride and how that sense of knowing rules your actions and makes your actions Sinful by nature. It is pride that tells you to ask God for forgiveness, and it is Pride that prevents you from stopping the cycle of Sin. The mind itself is a maze, and I am teaching you how to unlock the combination inside. If you focus on Pride, you can defeat all Sin inside. Simply tell the ego that they know nothing. Tell them truth inside and say, "Satan get out of my mind". This will allow you to drop the Pride inside and will allow you to truly love God above. Pride prevents you from giving him your love. God asks for submission from self. You cannot submit with an ego. For those of you who think the ego is associated with the true form of self, research "ego death" and understand that all of the testimonies of those who claim to have achieved this state of mind, and how they were still very much in control of themselves after. The ego is a construct and ego death today will result in an ego reforming within the mind the moment the ego dies. It takes a little time, but the ego always returns home until you learn the steps to defeat the darkness inside and to align with the divine light that each of us hold within your souls.

Chapter 2

Pride

Pride is the root of all Sin. It is pride that makes one stomp all over others to achieve their goal of riches and that is the epitome of the word Greed. Pride makes one think that they are entitled to stealing happiness, or poisoning the masses with products that have ingredients which when mixed with other ingredients result in alchemy and when you put a combination of certain additives that on their own are not harmful, but when combined it results in a toxic brew which is consumed by consumers and results in an uptick of disease such as cancer and autoimmune disease. It is the Greed that drove all companies to taint their ingestible products, poisoning the masses in the process. Cancer has no trigger when Doctors view the disease unless they can pinpoint a genetic marker. It remains elusive to the best minds that exist on this planet, but the root of all cancers is the poison we ingest in our food, in our water supplies, and in the medicine we take. What we choose to put in our bodies reflects the health we endure. Alchemy is the changing of one form to another. Humans are incapable of making products safer by adding chemicals to them to promote longer shelf life and to promote quality in taste. It is a tradeoff they have all collectively made against humanity to drive that desire for Greedy profits. Pride is a sense of entitlement and the mind that sees how to maximize wealth is incapable of seeing, or caring for that matter, about the long-term effects of their actions today, and how those actions result in the destruction of the livelihood of those whom they sell their products too. Pride is the root to Greed.

Envy is also a Sin geared with Pride being the catalyst for envious actions to manifest. Envy is that feeling of desire that takes over the mind and causes the mind to feel entitled to what others have earned in this world. It does not have to center around material things, as you can be envious of a plethora of aspects of another's mind, such as intelligence that is gifted to others that you do not possess. Envy is hinged upon the Sin of Pride as Pride is that sense of entitlement that one holds about themselves. Material things in this world are not worth their weight in gold when you see the true dynamic behind how attachments rule you in the flesh and dictate your demise as this world and this Universe is the illusion of control. Pride being the root of the Sin of Envy.

Wrath is extreme anger gone out of control. Wrath is Pride unleashed. Pride dictates your sense of being right, or your sense of empowerment. These senses go out of control within the mind itself which feeds your mind with a series of actionable biased facts which are not based on truth, but a representation of hate. Hate is a byproduct of Pride and Hate is what fuels wrath. Hate is the sense in self that tells the mind that you are superior and that your actions can demonstrate that superiority. Pride tells the ego what to do and pride overtakes all logic inside and demonstrates an act of what is perceived in the mind as “righteous vengeance” but there is no such thing as righteous vengeance as vengeance is prideful thus Sinful and righteousness is the exact opposite of Sin. Pride rules wrath and Pride is the enemy inside.

Gluttony is also dictated by pride and our desire to consume more and more. Gluttony is not just about eating too much food but is an array of actions that make one consume more than they need. Vices like drug use and drinking alcohol are not Sinful in nature as they are afflictions one places on oneself and the only one hurt is that person who is afflicting themselves. These are Sins we commit upon ourselves but are not God’s sins handed down to man. The world today looks upon drug use as an overarching problem that feeds their perceived immorality, yet all drugs are derived from nature and God gave man full dominion over nature, thus it is not the drug that is the problem but the person who is overconsuming, including addicted to the drug, and that addiction will tear that person apart if they pick the wrong poison from which to ingest. Drugs are not created equal, and not all drugs are destructive. Doctors give drugs to patients that alleviate symptoms. This is our modern medicine. Drugs that are destructive to oneself but do not hurt others, are not evil by nature, as evil is defined as darkness placed on others. God gave each of us free will to experience his creation, and Sin is defined in his holy words which he used prophets to relay to humanity. Those of you who judge those who consume drugs are doing so from a place of pride. You are Sinning to point out the darkness around you. Overconsumption is a Sin, but vices are afflictions, know the difference.

The Sin of Sloth is entitlement in the mind driven by ego. Ego is the crux of how we view ourselves and it is the Sin that will enslave you to this creation. Sloth is the sense inside that tells you not to act on any actions. It is basically giving up on living a life to do what you please. Giving up is tantamount to quitting life. God gives us work through our minds and it is up to us to follow the light he gives us. Thoughts about doing good works in your community are dismissed in the minds of many. Pride is what keeps you from working for God above. Pride is what chains you to this world and Sloth is the denial of Divine inspiration. God created us to work, and work is what we have mistaken for worship. To worship initially meant to “work for” and we have distorted this meaning within the religious sects, and the Jews are the ones who treat the Sabbath as if it is a day of rest when God dictated to us to give him one day of worship and worship means to work for thus, taking a day off dedicated to God serves no God. The Sabbath is a day of worship by doing God's work in your community. Feed the poor, help another, do something aligned with the light inside.

The Sin of Lust controls the primal mind and is driven by Pride as one has to be prideful to succumb to the temptations of the flesh, with a sense of entitlement attached. SATAN will feed the mind with thoughts of sex, and this is to entice oneself into fulfilling those desires to quench the thirst for pleasure. SATAN uses this process of feeding the mind sexual thoughts to keep one from aligning with the divinity held inside. The mind asks for alignment and some of you are shades of gray while others are fully darkened. Pride rules the Sin of lust and will dictate your actions unless you awaken to the true form inside and attach the mind to this higher state of being and defeating the SATANIC thoughts that drive your actions in this reality.

As I have pointed out using plain logic, the mind is controlled by Pride, and it is up to the Soul inside to awaken to fight the fight needed to alleviate Satanic thoughts and Satanic actions that defile the soul. Satan is designed to defile your pureness as we enter this existence through birth which is pure, and it is Satan who gives us choices in the mind to align with the darkness that each of us holds inside. If you can defeat pride by defeating the ego inside and wake up to the fact that you, the flesh, is faulty and you are unworthy because of prideful life you have lived, you can awaken and ask God for forgiveness for your Sins and errors, but you must do this without pride involved. This existence is not about you and your path, but about the bigger order and once you succumb to this bigger order, you will receive gifts of insight and true enlightenment of the Soul...

Chapter 3

How to Win the War Inside

The mind is the battleground for this war that you will fight if you try to align with God. The mind is not tangible but exists, nonetheless. You must view Sin by identifying pride in all actions. You must refrain from judging others as judgment for those who you see as living foul is a prideful act and pride cannot be used to enact righteous justice. Righteousness is earned through an understanding of pride. Once you have seen and you become knowledgeable over pride, and how thoughts dictate prideful actions, you can now muster the strength to stop the cycle and win the war. This act I am going to explain is the path to enlightenment. When your mind receives a prideful thought and when I say prideful, the last chapter explained how pride feeds all Sin, you take the following actions, and you will witness the power of God yourselves. Right when the thought comes in the mind to commit an act of pride, you need to muster the strength to say out loud, "SATAN STOP TEMPTING ME", and those of you who hear my words, and follow along, will stand to see the power that you hold over Satan. Repetition is how you defeat him inside. You must stay vigilant as he will try to trick you into committing sin. If you fall for a Sinful thought and act, ask for forgiveness and start the path anew. Righteousness is a path which is a marathon. If you can defeat the ego inside, and if you can gift your flesh to God above, you stand to receive his light inside. The Christ was enlightened, and I am the Christ for my words are enlightening your soul...

Chapter 4

How to Defeat Satan

To those of you who read these words, I say to you now, I gift the Armor of God to those seeking alignment. I gift the gift of SIGHT for you to see the words I have written and understand meaning in them. This reality is not what you have come to know. Every aspect of this reality is controlled by Satan, and only those who break free can align with God. Satan controls the minds of many. He controls how people act and how they interact. God exists in the mind as well as Satan, but one must learn which thoughts are from who. God's thoughts are pure. Satan is temptation in the mind that gives impulsive thoughts that don't require you to think through. I ask that you question all thoughts received and analyze them for their makeup and alignment to darkness or light.

I have gifted you with a gift from God in these writings. I have gifted you the third eye, and this gift will grow from here. Your third eye is your ability to conceptualize thoughts and ideas inside of the mind. Now, you can talk to your mind inside your head. I have given you a voice inside. This will allow you to see deception. This will allow you to do much, much more if you can align with God's divine light inside. The same way you view an item in your mind is the same way you control this gift. Project the gift outward and look at what you see when you do so. Think of something that you know the name of and look at what is there. If that something has a live camera feed, you can test how accurate this gift I gave you just now is. Accuracy comes with alignment and alignment comes through submission to God. The ego cannot be attached for this gift to work. I teach these things to those who will ascend after I teach them how to do so. The mind's eye can see the future once you are able to control the direction you send it in. The mind's eye can be used as a weapon of good. Satan will start a war on May 27th of this year. You all that read these words will witness this war transpire. The war is not just fighting with armies, but is the masses coming alive with dark spirits inside and these dark spirits will take over the minds of many turning them into demons. This change occurs in a few weeks' time, and all will see this change happening, but the mind will dictate how this perceived. It will resemble psychotic rage, and the experts will call this mental illness. They will not see the truth that darkness has been released on humanity.

The power you hold is almighty, but it must be unlocked to be useful. When you see the change occur, you can place that eye I gifted you anywhere you project it. Project yourself in front of the demon you run into and envision yourself taking a hand and place that hand inside of that demon's body and grab the darkness inside. Then throw the darkness on the ground. This is all done in the mind and you can do this extremely quick if you practice. The mind's eye is you, just not in this exact Universe as the universe also experiences a duality thus there is a physical representation of the Universe and there is a copy of the same Universe that is not made of physical matter, and there a version of yourself is playing out the roles you play here but in that nonphysical existence we call the astral plain. In past times we have called this place the spirit realm, but in reality, it is what I describe here. Actions in the mind are witnessed in this existence unseen by our eyes and unfelt by our sense. When you throw the darkness onto the ground, it will remain there until the end. A demon cannot be turned to the light and the best course of action is to remove the demon from the flesh. This will stop the rage. This will extinguish the hate. This is the key to winning the war between God and Satan. This is how you learn my path and those of you who ascend should take these words I say as truth and accept the truths I bring. You should give Satan's minions mercy.

Conclusion

This book will change your life if you choose to accept what I have brought here with my words for the truth that it is. To accept is a choice in the mind and I cannot force my wisdom on those who deny the logic I bring. This book has taught you Divine secrets to this existence. This is a warning to those who will try to reverse my teachings. I curse all that use my power for evil. You will burn with this Earth, and if you try to follow the darkness you will be struck down. This is a promise and not a threat in any way shape or form. I see ALL and that includes the paths of those who will read these words. I come to you humbly and without ego as ego is Sin and I am aligned with the light inside. This book is extremely short, packed with truth in every sentence. Your mind will have a hard time finding deceit or error in any of the words I have written here. If you still cannot believe, then that is Satan inside the mind telling you that I am false but question your logic. What have I said that was false?
