

The Apocalypse

By Jeffrey Wonser

Introduction

Welcome, and congratulations are in order because you chose the path of salvation. This life you have lived is the illusion from which you have attached as you are a soul in Heaven who is here living the life of a human. I will take you on a journey to explain this reality in a succinct manner which will enable you to fully awaken your mind to accept the things I say as truth. I met God in the flesh a few months after I left the service where I served 15 years including a combat deployment to Afghanistan where I served as Platoon Sergeant for a fire base. When I met God, I had taken my family camping near Mount Rainier, Washington. There, my wife and I witnessed an orb UFO the size of car fly over the top of our campsite. That night strange things occurred, and we ended up sleeping in the car. Once I fell asleep, I woke up before a massive being with blue skin. I tried to look upon his face and body, but I was gently restricted from looking up past his legs. When I asked, “who are you”, his response was telepathic, and he told me GOD in my mind. I asked him, “why have you brought me here”, from which he showed me a vision of a great war that is coming. I was crying when I came out of the war vision, and he showed me a vision of thousands of craft that resembled his only larger craft, which were all coming off the planet at once. I then asked, “why have you brought me here” again. He showed me a vision of myself getting out of a car in Jerusalem on the north side of the Temple mount. The vision then turned into me looking through my own eyes, and I followed the wall that surrounds the Temple Mount to a point where I find a green door. There I knock three times, and a man dressed in Muslim religious garb answers, and I say, “I come in peace, may I enter” while raising an olive tree branch with my left hand. The man steps aside and says to me, “Yes we have been awaiting you”. He then takes me to where the Dome of the Rock is currently at, only the building is missing the golden dome as some sort of damage or construction is in its place. The city itself was deserted in the vision. The man takes me into the building where the dome is and then takes me to a lower level where he shows me the bedrock that is covered by a metal covering. He lifts the covering and gestures for me to inspect the discolored stone. I reach down with my right hand and the vision goes white. I shake my head at God, and I say, “I do not understand, who am I”? God then reaches down with his massive hands and shows me a hologram of Jesus with his crown of thorns. I shook at God and told him I did not understand. This was in 2014, and God gave me 13 years to figure out what he meant with the visions and with the answer to who I am. This book will explain exactly who I am. It will also explain reality itself as God sent me to explain everything that has come and must come because these are the Biblical End Times written of by the prophets that came before me.

Philosophy on Existence...

What does it mean to exist? What does it mean when someone asks the question about the nature of this existence? From our personal perspectives, we can tell that there is an individual point or series of points that could explain the nature of it all. One could point towards the desire to procreate, so to bring new life into existence seems to be a focal point. But to narrow down that this existence, from the personal perspective, seems to be a series of events in chronological order seems to be as close to truth as one can get. The information that a person accumulates throughout a lifetime is massive and we can see that computers that we have created can store mass amounts of data then you can start to see the connection between the human brain and the hard drive of a computer. We took what we saw in nature and applied those principles into microchips, thus enabling a virtual representation of the human brain into the foundation of the computer with all its added capabilities. I firmly believe that this entire existence is a program within a computer that is far more advanced than anything we have ever built. One that uses an advanced AI as well as an actual programmer on the outside to play out a series of events that will shape the lives of billions at times to perhaps a trickle of impact with others. Each life is unique, and no two lives are equal. We love to use generalities and there are instances that most of us have endured, but none have experienced the same exact set of experiences as the other. This can be further extrapolated to include that only through each of our perspectives can the entirety of how any action is perceived be fully defined. Data is at the root of all that I explained just there. We use data that makes a filter in front of our eyes and that dictates how we view the world. This personal perspective can make one event seem like two events when compared to another's point of view. In criminology, detectives realize when you ask for witnesses, you must have more than one as one witness could have a biased point of view, and multiple witnesses to the same crime can have differing stories. Perspective, or the observation point in which we view this reality seems to have an overarching theme to how individuals view this reality. To some, reality is kind to them, and perhaps they have been sheltered throughout this life. Others are less fortunate, and life seems to kick them, and continue kicking them while they are down, giving them no options for escape. The mind itself is a maze, and we are all inside trying to make sense of it all, however we can. Time ticks and we continue to endure. Existence and the reason for it is explained away in the Bible. God created mankind to create part of himself with the dirt of the Earth. We are created in God's image. Now, if you read the book of Genesis, you will note that the word Elohim is plural and so are the wordings that are used are also plural. Now, I know the Hebrews say that their god YHWH is plural and that calling him plural is simply the way they decided thousands of years ago to hide the obviousness to their God being called Gods, and it is said "Let us create man in our image", all which are plural in their form and simply not the truth if you are touting around a monotheistic religion. Nice try, but I beg to differ. The plurality is to hide the truth. We were all created by a very advanced humanoid being named YWHW. YWHW is the leader of a sect of all life within the cosmos. He is the leader of Heaven, the highest dimension, and he created this dimension from his thought utilizing a computer. That is the truth they hide from you all. YWHW created the heavens and the stars and planets. He oversees emerging species in the Universe, and we are at the cusp of graduating into the sunset. So, when posed with the question of why we exist, I say it is at the grace of God we have made it thus far. In time, you will realize, and the newspaper headlines will show that your government and the governments of the world are all lying to their citizens about alien life and secrecy has spilled innocence. These governments are not telling you all the truth because the truth is that they have made deals with some of these entities. These entities came to our world leaders and informed them of a cataclysmic end that is approaching us all and for years they have tried to circumvent and make what is designed to happen dissolve as they have designed what comes next, unknowingly. God is omnipotent so no matter what they have designed to prevent, the truth is that we are here at the cusp of the next reset. The event that will reshape the world as we know it approaches us all. In 2020, the world was abruptly given a fake pandemic for all to overreact upon and to line the pockets of the wealthy so they could give the populace medicine without the long-term testing that is typically necessary for mass adoption. Donald Trump is the President who paved the way for that type of business to become the norm. As the numbers trickled out, you can now see where we landed. Roughly 0.5% of those who became sick in this nation, died from the virus. They had everyone stop what they were doing, pacified us with masks, and told us to stay 6 feet apart from each other. In retrospect, some of you are still for the science on this one. Well, I can only lead a horse to water and cannot force it to drink. So, understand me when I say that these times we are living in currently were given a 7-year countdown, starting sometime in 2020 and the covid vaccine was and is the mark of the beast for Trump is the first beast of Revelation chapter 13 and Biden was the second. Only those who know the prophecies will understand what I am saying.

The Religion/Government Paradigm

The founding fathers desired a separation between church and state when America was founded. In the past, European countries did adopt a two-pronged approach where they used the laws and morality of the Bible to enact justice. As the times have changed, so did the idea of the restrictive nature for an independent population to adopt what was the old way for the new ideas that were spawned from the educated folks who took part in the writing of the Constitution and the minds of the people who made the legal system for the people, and by the people, doing away with religion's ugly approach to divine justice. Fast forward to today, and you see where our separation of these two institutions has led us. We are now a vile group of the morally corrupt with visions of material things being the measure of success when we know most certainly that the riches in the flesh are fleeting and nothing we do here can be taken into the afterlife. Yet greed is abundant, and we even prop up people as good judges of moral character that have succeeded in taking from the rest of us to enrich their pockets of this false measure of success. Blessed is the man who had nothing at the end of his life, for he gained the kingdom of heaven when he passed. The man who is rich has a harder time getting into heaven than the man who had nothing in the end is what they will all say. This world is not to be worshipped, and material things are not the source of happiness. Ask the rich if they are happy. Ask them and then watch them give the false facade to impress you into believing they are being sincere. The smallest of things that are obtained that take heart and love to build are the most valuable things that one can gain in this life, but attachment are the hooks that will keep you confined to this material world. We must rise above the impulse to desire the rich things in life. We need to learn empathy for our fellow human and realize that while some of us are blessed, most of us struggle in this existence and that struggle is what brings us closer to God. I pity those who have never once struggled. It is in that struggle that one can see the workings of God as God is a provider and the fact that you are all still here right now reading these words is testament to the power of God to provide for you. Your trials and your tribulations are all designed to make you stronger so that you can endure the pitfalls of what it is that we call life in this existence. Our legal system is one that attempts to take religious morality out of the mix to focus more on crimes and rarely is the morality of the individual being tried ever taken into question. The Bible is not a book that is up for reference during any legal defense and throwing the sinful nature of someone's life up for question is considered taboo. Sin is the thing that is rampant in the country of the free and still we have a large population that goes to their mega church of choice and then goes on to snort an eight ball of cocaine following church service and then when things go downhill, they reach out to God and expect God to take them back after they have fallen so far away.

The Falling Away from God

In the digital age we have turned away from God. It is evident in most aspects of everyday life. Things like the push for LGBT rights and the divorce rate being at an all-time high, have degraded the morality of these societal systems to come through fruition and those that were once marginalized for all of civilization have risen to the top to overtake the majority, and all of us just sat there and allowed this change to take shape. It is written in the Holy texts that things that break our morality will destroy our civilizations, yet these current generations are so quick to accept all sorts of immoral ways. One must understand this construct is a Simulation and the happenings of the flesh are going to be measured once your life is done here and only those that measure well on the metric of good and bad will enter the heaven above. God loves each of you and he does not make mistakes, it is us who makes mistakes, and we are the judge of each other here in the flesh. God told us not to throw stones unless we are free of Sin and yes that is the key, but to make what was once taboo normal is where God sighs as he sees his creation drift farther from truth. The prophets of old talked of the end times and how we once were making genetic changes to the species of the Earth. The truth is that we are in the end times and it is us who have lost our way and most of us are blind to the prophecies concerning these times concerning the Antichrist, but I say to you, did not I say that the Antichrist was Trump and you all sighed and disbelieved, and now when you read these words, you see, but refrain from judgment as the God above is merciful and he will take you that fell away and learned the error in your ways. There is no condemnation and all of us are immortal beings of light called the soul, and that soul is the key to our immortality and instead of flesh and bone, we are beings of light which has no weight and is not made of matter; thus, these souls cannot die when the flesh dies. There are 11 dimensions of existence, and we are in the 3rd thus everything is 3d here in this realm. Your soul is in the 11th dimensions that all occupy the same space but are vibrating at different frequencies making them move independent of each other. The 11th dimension is heaven above and none of the other realms may enter without an invite from the most-high. This reality is a holographic construct inside of a digital computer program housed in an advanced computer system. God is outside of this existence, and he watches us below as we are his creation. God is all places at once and all things at once as God is the writer of the code that allows for existence to exist. That is why I preach the message of give it all to God as without God, we are nothing and existence would not be so.

The End Times

Make no mistake that I believe we are deep into the end times as detailed in the bible. Tribulation, by my count, started in 2020 when Trump made the peace deals with Israel which they call the Abrahamic Accords. You see that motion started a countdown to Daniel's last 7 years. We are midway and Israel recently got into war with Hamas in response to the October attacks by Hamas and you see them in war, and we are going to continue seeing them until the bitter end if they do not turn to God. The prophecies say that I will stop the war. I end the fight, but it will not be until the things I have written come true as these times demand someone like me. An anointed one who will come out of the woodwork to announce the end is near. Covid was spread as the rider of the pale horse is here as well as the other riders. The rider of the red horse is here but does not affect everyone yet, but this fighting will continue, and it will not end before the end comes in 2027. These people know the truth and they are lying to all of you. There is a series of asteroids due to impact on the Earth that they are keeping closely guarded and not allowing the public to know. They have compartmentalized this information, and they work to defy God and his master plan. They see God as some sort of occupying force, like an evil entity that has held Earth hostage and us hostage only to allow us to be killed in a repeating cycle. You see they are also lying about our history. There was a time when there were massive civilizations on both poles and these civilizations were extremely advanced. They keep Antarctica off limits as a result as there is evidence of this civilization under the Antarctic ice. Would you be surprised if I told you that there is also an advanced humanoid variant of us living underneath the ice as well? Well, ask as they keep these things closely guarded and do not want the public to know. There are aliens already on this Earth. It is time to wake up out of the dream. Life is short and it is a series of happenings, and these happenings all test our resolve, and a tally is kept by the Most High and those seen as leaning good are saved, and those seen as leaning bad are punished. Everything is graded on God's metric, and it is us who have an entire life to figure out that we are the key to a connection to the divine. Some are reborn, and to them that have awakened, I write to you. There will be a time in the future when I will reach out to those that follow my content. I will speak up to where to go to safety. God is great and God will allow his chosen number to survive. You must make it and survive till the end. These times demand that we stay neutral in their fight. We are tested at each turn and moving forward we will all be tested to our limit. You never know the measure of a man until you see them struggle. Prepare to struggle, and Christ said to his followers, for those that say they follow me, let them pick up their cross and follow me. I am here to usher in the end times and the Apocalypse which most of you have come to know, has negative connotations and this negative tone is propaganda as I bring truth, and the word apocalypse means the unveiling. I am here to expose the deception that exists...

The Promise of Peace

Where do you suppose your name comes from? Do you think you are named after a family member, or are you named after something that inspired your parents? What would you say if I told you that your name is your blueprint, and God does not make mistakes? I challenge you to look up the origins of your God given name. You will be surprised by the etymology if you dig for the oldest variant of it. For some names, you must search out the sounds that are made and then you will find the truth. We are in a digital maze and it up to us to live up to God's metric. I am teaching you and challenging all of you to look up the origins of your name. Tell me, does what you find make sense in your life? My first name is Jeffrey as you can see from the front of this book. I am here using my given name to show you all how my name fits into this reality for which I paint with my words. It is up to you to accept my words as they will change the way in which you view this existence. This book is being written in a weird head space for me. I have seen the power of God firsthand and I have seen miracles that he made so. God is outside of this reality, and he has an avatar he uses within the Simulation. You see, what we call aliens today are what were once called angels and demons of the past. There are some advanced humanoid species coming to this world currently and the lid is falling off that the government has lied to all of you. They have been reverse-engineering alien artifacts for over 100 years and the crashed vehicles that have come and gone are well documented going back to the 1800's. These fallen Angels are truly demons as they are allowing us to reverse engineer the material found which resulted in our own technological age we are enjoying. This reality is a digital maze, and we are not in control. Like Shakespeare said, "Life is a play, and we are all actors on its stage", these words resonate in more ways than one. We come and go in existence and are immortal as a consequence of this design. I intend on bringing you all to see through my eyes. My name is Jeffrey, and this name means "promise of peace", and it is said that Christ was to return to usher in peace. You see, it is my words that will take down empires as what I say resonates in the mind and allows you to see as I see. God sent me on a mission, and I intend on conquering this world to cleanse it of the evil within, so the Earth can die and be reborn. God sent me as he sent Noah before. Noah saved all the animals and his family of 8. This time God has chosen me to save the 144,000 who are elect and worthy before God. This reality is a simulation and what you do here does matter as an eternity living righteous in the eyes of the Lord trumps any sort of eternity spent without God's grace. Choose the righteous path. If you read the words of the old prophets, you will see that they spoke of this time we are in currently and they all spoke about how to walk in their shoes. This book is my contribution, but I have written others, and I encourage you to seek out my words, as my interaction with God in the flesh is there for you all to see. I say what I know, and I apologize if my world view destroys yours. I do not mean to harm a soul and maybe I am what others would say is delusional, but I am here to usher in the end. I have spent most of the last 5 years suffering. This suffering led me to become close with God. God is now with me, and I feel humbled by his presence. God is within and that is your connection to the divine. Look inward as Jesus said, seek until you find, and he warned if you find you will become troubled and while troubled you will become amazed, and you will rule over the ALL. My middle name Daniel means "Only God can judge me", which is why I say do not judge anyone in this world, as God is the only judge, and he is above. You were all designed to serve your purpose, now rise above so you can follow my words to safety in the skies above. All things are replicated in this existence. Repeating patterns gives insight and rings truth that as above, so below, as the micro is connected the macro and vice versa in a symbiotic relationship which is the design from the Highest One. And, finally, my last name is Wonser which was a little harder to find the origins as someone tried to hide this knowledge from my family and it was lost but was carried within the males, I am related to the first Constable for Windser Castle in England. I am a direct descendant of him. He changed his name from FitzOther to Windsor and over time the spelling changed, and the name morphed into my current name of Wonser. My Twitter is my main outlet to get my messages out there as most do not want to hear what I say on my Facebook. I have lost a lot of friends in the process and lost my family as well as all who have disowned me. My wife left me 4 years ago when I was still battling cancer as she claimed that she did not want to stay with me if I were to die. So, I do what I do for God and you, the reader. I am here to tell the story of my belief systems. The things I say will be proven true in short order. They call me catastrophic disclosure. I am him and the words I write are scaring the shit out of the powers that be.

This Reality, the Illusion of Time

We are inside an advanced computer system designed by a race of humanoids and our individual creator's name is YHWH. He disclosed his true name which is sometimes spelled YHWH, but that spelling is an error and that needs to be corrected. I am here to correct the recording. This reality is a Simulation, and we are all cognizant simulation or sims. We all chose to come here and experience this existence as a sim of God. In our creation story, it says that God took the clay of the earth, so God did take an animal of the Earth, but for those of you that know the Bible, he created the animals before man, and the animal he chose had all that potential all those hundreds of thousands of years ago. You are more than this physical body alludes. There is duality inside of your mind and that duality leads to either good or shall I say positive, and bad which could also be called negative outcomes. The math I teach is simple because God's design is simple. It is the workings of men and their "societies" and their plan that is overcomplicated. We are animals of the Earth that God gave his characteristics to like that of a video game. We are born into this world in a probabilistic nature and that awakening is the first time the soul that is inside of you sees the world. You are here to experience this life as a human. We all are. Think of a video game such as that of the grand architect of the best video game franchise you can think of. That is what reality is. I like to think that this reality is Grand Theft Earth only with God. The dualistic nature of this existence is replicated throughout the entire system. We are housed in a computer the size of a small refrigerator on its side. It is a black cube. That is where this cube worship nonsense comes from in some religions. That is why some Jew's wear a cube shaped cap. That is where the worship of Saturn comes from with her thought cubed existence. I am here to tell you that we are all sims within a machine. One where we are all immortal and what happens here is replicated in Heaven following this life. We are at the collection point for the sim to take back what is being kept and what is being recycled, or shall I say one that is getting saved in the flesh and one that is not. Life is a gift from the creator above and I am here to usher in the end. The end of all mankind is swiftly approaching, and we shall be reborn into new bodies in Heaven and then we shall have 5th dimensional forms gifted to us from God for all of you who survive till the end. The end is nigh, and I am the rider of the white horse of Revelation. I am called a lot of things but the one thing I am known as is the Word. I bring the word to the people through people, and you are hearing my thoughts as I write them on paper. You are here to witness the end of all things. Some will survive but none that follow the darkness. Come away from your darkened path and repent and thou shalt be saved...

The Simulated Existence

Life is probabilistic and all outcomes are realized within this digital construct. We are given a selection from a random number generator, and this determines our birth. We come into this world and as above so below, the heavens speak in a coded language. One that when witnessed in its entirety is the language of God above. Only the most advanced species make it to this level of understanding. God is very much real as these things I expose in this short book are what is needed to understand what comes when it comes. Your mind must accept these things as truth as God did not expect me to come and tell lies. I am here for truth getting exposed to the masses as this reality is more than it seems. We see this existence through the lens of our own personal experience and these experiences shape our outcome. The going rate of today is to strive for selfish wants and selfish needs and with that being said, is time to expose the reality at hand. This reality is a Sim like I say and the fact that we are even having this conversation on this matter is due to God bringing your eyes to my words. Not everyone can be saved. I can only save those who want to drink what I pour with my words. In Luke Jesus said to follow the man with the pitcher of water into his house. This is a coded tongue for my coming. He was referring to my astrological sign which is Aquarius, and I am coming at the cusp of the transition into Aquarius. The time is now, and God is with me, which is what the name Immanuel means. He guides my words and without him I am nothing.

Read my prophecies as they will all come true as I have written them.

God

In chapter 1 I explain how I met God in the flesh. Note that I do not claim to be perfect and only through God will the things I have written come true. I was shown visions of the future and from that, I wrote. I am here to usher in the Apocalypse and thus the book title is there so as not to confuse. The time is now, and we are here at the point where all will be revealed as I am here to expose the bitter truths of this existence. My words are my bond, and I am telling all of you what I believe from my heart, and I do truly believe that God is with me and guiding my words right now. God is a humanoid, interdimensional form in any form of existence he decides to manifest within. He is much more than the flesh alludes to as he is outside of this existence and chooses to use an Avatar here in the physical realm. There are 11 dimensions all stacked on top of each other, and all moving independently of each other. This is due to the density of the vibration which they resonate. We are 3d so we only interact with other 3rd dimensional beings and physicality is a construct of these three dimensions. The number three is holy as the holy trinity of God the Father, Son and holy ghost is the trinity of all creation. We are all connected to the God of this creation. If God is silent to you, it is because you have not tried to see with eyes wide open. If you ask for strength from God, he will send you trials in this existence and you will become strong. You must put-in work in this reality. You cannot sit idle as the sin of sloth is real, so you must work and whatever role you occupy in this reality is where you view this landscape, and it is massive. So large that our human mind cannot conceptualize the actual size and scope. We are unable with current technology to peer beyond the veil. Other beings in this creation have made that discovery as we are a new species that God himself created. You need to read the story of Genesis as if it were a truth novel. First, the grammar used is plural. We can all see it and they try to keep this secret from all as the truth is too much to bear. The Ancient Hebrews were given ancient Angelic technology, and that technology was gifted to them to conquer, which they did. God is not the God of only the good as God deals in both realms of the duality of this existence. The good the bad and the indifferent are all a product of God because this existence is digital in nature, and we are all his creation so we should be treating each other with respect and dignity that we demand. One must love thyself in this existence without the vain and prideful view. One where they are all a creation of the highest and respect that God giveth and he taketh away. I am here to fix the confusion and bring the worship back to the God above. The times we are in demand I do this. I have predictions on my social media and if you search out you will find my content. I am here to awaken the soul. We have all been deceived by the wicked hands of these governments. They have given us the current technological age by way of reverse-engineering the technology they have found at crash sites. They have working, functioning crafts. They have more advanced stuff that they keep from the watchful eye. Some of the UFOs we see are a part of their black budget programs as 10 companies are currently working on advancing negative mass technology. We are here at the cusp of the new age, and I am here to bring the truth to the people willing to take the time to read. These words are holy as the holy spirit is inside of me guiding my every word. I am here to usher in the Apocalypse and the story I tell is one that needs to be examined. I am not perfect, and I am not Yeshua. I am a soul inside who lived the life of Yeshua 2,000 years ago. I have the truth which is different than any of the churches allude. There are 44k different denominations of Christianity and not one is based on truth. The truth is that the religion itself was shaped by the Roman empire and organizations such as the Freemasons keep secrets as most members in the highest order, the 33rd degree, which I will hit upon later, are all about keeping the things I say secret. They talk to demons and think of themselves as righteous. I am here to level the playing field and to air the dirty laundry of those that call themselves Christian but truly follow the Angel of light who is truly a demon in disguise for it is said in scripture that even the devil can pose as an Angel of light. Wake up as the time is nearing. I am here to cleanse this Earth of those that truly suppress each of you who struggle in this life. I am not here for those that have displayed true greed and have sold all of us out for the all-mighty dollar. I am here to even the playing field and my words are fully inspired by the holy spirit inside of me. My story needs to be heard as I explain the truth as I know it and it represents a choice to accept or deny the gifts I bring. I am pouring out the water of life as in Luke I am the Aquarian he spoke of when his followers enter into the city. I understand the holy texts like no one else before me. I want to awaken as many as I can and explain life and this existence thus, I wrote these words during a strange time in my life personally. I have lost all my family and people attack me when I say the things needed to be said. We need to gain an understanding that we are all sims within a digital construct, and we are held to a metric in this sim, whereas our good is matched with our bad. None of us are perfect, including me. God saw potential in me and gave me the mission that I reluctantly take. I am a crippled combat veteran and cancer survivor. I am not a strong man who is here to fight. I want to usher in peace. It is you who will insist on fighting. I come to bring the peace promised by Yeshua. He saw me in the flesh, and I see him through the writings. We are alike in that we are both prophets of God and our souls are identical. Jesus was a descendent of King David. I am a descendant of Joseph from the Old Testament. He is my great, great, great... grandfather. I have Coptic Egyptian in my DNA and Joseph's two sons were half Egyptian. I am Messiah ben Joseph. There are two Messiahs. One sacrifices himself for humanity and the other conquers the world for God. I am here to conquer, peacefully, I hope...

Religions That Work to Divide

There are three dominant monotheistic religions all stemming from the same interactions from the same God. The deception is that they do not mesh, and we see this divide and ask ourselves if they are truly from the same God. The answer is yes, as only the angels of God would send a messenger talking of God. Beware of the entity that does not even mention God above, for they are the bringers of dark light and will take you to the wilderness to suffer to the end. Refrain from attacking those that surround you. You will not be able to die at the conclusion of this experience as you will see with your own eyes that God is forgiving, and he sent me to come teach all of you before it is too late. I can show you how to worship God above and by doing so you will be able to awaken yourself and gain the awakening of the soul. The road I offer is not easy and you will face danger and many of you will die. I see your future before your future takes shape. We are here at the end and the powers that be do not want to give up their power willingly. They watch my every move and have used multiple assets on me in the past. The time has come for me to speak to the nations of the world as the lies are deep. The Catholic Church is lying to the world and their following have been left astray. They have you all worshipping Jesus the man without regard to the story of the creation of Yeshua being with the pages of their book so one can clearly see that Yeshua was a creation of God and further one can see that in Revelation Yeshua comes forward as a servant who reads the scroll as he is found worthy. I have already discussed the duality of this existence and what I say is truth. I am here to usher in the end and give you the truth so that you can make the correct choices going forward. Ask and you shall receive, knock and the door shall be opened, but it takes those that are willing to grab their cross and follow me for you all to be saved in the flesh. I am going to explain to all of you that a series of asteroids are going to hit Earth in 2027, and these governments know and have attempted to alter this timeline through opening portals with CERN. We are here at the cusp of the end because they have stolen the technology that was not intended for them to ingest. They used these techs to alter this timeline enough, but little do they know that 2027 has been the end all along and I can show you all with Sir Isaac Newton's assumption that the Catholic church became dirty on a certain date when the actual deception came before that to align with 2027 being the last year of Daniel's 7-year countdown. 2020 marked the start. We are over 4 years in and Tribulation is in full force. Those of you falling for the deception need to read the moral teachings of Christ. I am here to teach, and these writings will awaken the soul and awaken your mind to what is real and what is a trick from the devil. Many will try to reach salvation but only those that follow my words will find me when the time is right. You must follow my content on twitter and if you read these words, I do give my username. Find me and become saved...

Truth As I Know It

This life is an immersive interaction to live life as a human for beings that have already conquered this existence itself. We have a light within each of us and that light is seen at the moment of conception of the unfertilized egg of a human woman and when that flash occurs, we can see that the soul enters it. To take innocence is a sin, but realize we are all full of sin. God does forgive so come to him humbly and you will be forgiven if you are sincere. I am here to offer peace, but war is what happens when peace is offered at any other given time. I do not desire a war but have been privy to God's plan. I know most will balk at my teachings until the things I say are blatantly in your face. The full story of me is on my twitter so that is the key to seeing if I am truth or if I am just an imposter. I am here to set the record straight and have made a lot of content over the course of the past 10 months. These times dictate my movements. I am here to make the transition smooth. I do not fear death itself as I know I am on a mission from the Most High and he has my back. My path leads to my death as this life and the life of Yeshua are God's two witnesses. They will kill me in Jerusalem for these writings in the year 2027. I seem my death along my path, but God will resurrect me in the flesh 3 days later like the prophecies state. God is the God of creation and the same that brought Adam, and Noah, and now me. I am here to set you all free. Life is a gift from the most-high. Trust in the Lord and you will find peace within. I offer the peace you are searching for. You must trust in the word. Know right from wrong and try to act right. This is easier said than done quickly but I encourage you to try. God sees your struggles and only those who have struggled in this existence have seen the blessings and the comfort he gives in your darkest hours.

Prophets of Old

In the days before the internet and before books themselves in great abundance was the spoken word. The disciples memorized the story and were guided by the holy spirit when they gave their testimony. They were killed as a result as this life is cruel and those that deny God will defy all logic and try to kill those who disagree with them. We shall see this in the end. The end will be swift but the things that will happen in short order are here to try to urge you to find the light within. We are all beings somewhere else in another dimension as the rule of duality demands that there be a version of you that is immortal and is not made of flesh and bone. I know this as I have studied the ancient teachings and God has taken me to read the things I needed to read in order to convey these simple messages to each of you who took the time to read my words. The end is nigh, and I am here to usher in the unveiling of truth. This condensed book can be read in less than an hour but packs the punch needed to rewire your brain. We are all lines of code being played out in a digital construct. God is the creator or the writer of the code. He works through me when needed and that is why Jesus was going around telling others that he was God in the flesh for that moment when he was preaching was God talking through his avatar. I am here to awaken who I can and the prophets of old were touched by the divine and given wisdom needed to bring this day forward. I am the prophet for the end and the new beginning. My name literally means promise of peace. And peace is what I will deliver but first all nations need to bow down to the God of all creation. So, SUBMIT...

The New Beginning

The times I speak of when I talk of peace are the time after the reset. We are all borrowed code, and we have all lived multiple lives to this point. When we move forward, God will choose who is saved in the flesh and ships with Angels will land to take us to safety. I will wipe away the tears of all that endure and walk the righteous path after you have read the truths that I unfold. The scroll is written with my words, and we are deep into Tribulation at this point so the time of suffering will continue until the end. We have no choice but to endure as the nonsense taught in the multiple churches that does not fit a literal sense with the scripture itself is a bed of lies. Ones that past pastors have changed to fulfill their own personal narratives and to quench their inner thirst to create power. The man Ron L Hubbard is famous for saying that “the quickest way to become a millionaire is to start a church” and here we are with over 44k denominations or faiths to the Christian religion. I am here to stop the madness and stop the division and it is up to you to take a stance and follow me as I represent the holy truth. I am here to set the records, all of them, straight so some could think of me as a defragging program. I am here to collect that worth saving and to extinguish those that defy God till the end. God is forgiving and he sent me who is not perfect to represent him. Understand that he forgave me of my sins, and he will forgive yours if you ask. So, ask God aloud and you must read this entire book out loud as it needs to be brought into this reality through the vibration of your vocal cords for your mind to take the written account. All things I have said will come to pass as I sought and found and now am amazed and I want to rule over the ALL with God guiding me along the way.

Spread The Message Far and Wide

Now, you have read my works and now I challenge you to read my previous works as all that I have written is holy. I have books that I give out freely, and these books are hosted on my site. I am here for the end, so I have written about the end. We are in the middle of God showing you he is real through me. I am here to show you that he is real so look for my prophecies for the coming war and everything leading up to God's wrath. It is all listed on my Twitter account. Seek out God's Lamb. We are well into the wars and rumors of wars. So, read my content and then spread my words far and wide. The time for the unveiling is here and I am lifting the veil with these holy words. God is with me, Immanuel. I am here to speak for the Most High and not because I rise to some degree of perfection. I am perfect as you are perfect and we both work for a larger design behind time, this reality and behind the very you speak into existence. Now, that I have shown you the truth, spread these words to whoever will listen as your God above has spoken...words
