

Best of the Roan Contest

We're thrilled to launch what we hope will be our first annual Best of the Roan Contest!

The purpose of this is to have fun while recognizing some key folks in the community. We'll tally the results and print them in the September issue in honor of the magazine's one year anniversary, and we'll host an awards ceremony in September as well. More information to follow in the July issue and on Facebook.

There are multiple ways to enter:

- Write in your answers here, scan it and email it to amy@roanmountainmagazine.com.
- Write in your answers, take a picture of it and text it to Amy (phone number on page 5).
- Complete the survey online at: freeonlinesurveys.com/s/2ngQyBLR

Please keep it friendly and fun!

Most talkative resident:

Quietest resident:

Best joke teller:

Longest Sunday sermon:

Shortest Sunday sermon:

Resident with the best beard:

Coldest beer in town:

Resident who drinks the most coffee:

Nicest business frontage:

Best resident storyteller:

Longest marriage (enter names and date of marriage, both partners must still be living):

Oldest living resident (enter name and date of birth; date of birth will not be made public):

Prettiest front yard (list name and general area, such as "The Smiths, Shell Creek"):

Best customer service (any local business):

Best hunter/trapper:

Best fisherman:

Best homemade pie:

Most grandkids (list living grandparent's name and number of grands and great grands):

General Questions

What do you love most about living in Roan Mountain?

If we sell raffle tickets at our September awards ceremony, what local charity or cause would you like the proceeds to go to?

Please provide your name and email address or phone number in case we need info to contact the winners or clarification. We won't share your information or your votes.