ABOUT

Austin Hamilton is a nationally touring singer-songwriter from northeast Ohio, performing solo and with his full band, “the Hitchhikers.” Known for his soulful, gravelly vocals and deep blues inflections, he brings a unique perspective to acoustic performances, often playing guitar, kick drum, and tambourine simultaneously. With the Hitchhikers, his full-band shows blend bluegrass, traditional country, and alternative country with heartfelt, storytelling lyrics.

In 2024, Austin & The Rustbelt Ragtops—most now touring with him as the Hitchhikers—won Best Folk Band at the Cleveland Music Awards, and Austin was nominated for Best Country Artist. Inspired by Tyler Childers, Zach Bryan, Colter Wall, Chris Stapleton, and Whiskey Myers, and he has shared the stage with Ward Davis, Bill Taylor, Hunter Flynn, and more. He was also invited backstage at the Laurel Cove Music Festival to perform and be filmed by Musical Moonshine, a vlog highlighting rising Americana acts.
