ABOUT

Hailing from Kentucky, a state known for its deep musical roots—from bluegrass and gospel to rock and country—OTIS blends these influences into a unique blues-based rock 'n' roll sound. Boone Froggett (guitar/vocals), John Seeley (bass), Alex Wells (guitar), and Dale Myers (drums) draw inspiration from traditional instruments, classic rock, and legends like Muddy Waters, Leadbelly, and Motown, creating music that transcends simple genre labels.

OTIS began gaining attention with their 2014 release Tough Times: A Tribute to John Brim and joined Cleopatra Records in 2017 with their second album, Eyes of the Sun. Their music has earned praise from ZZ Top's Billy F. Gibbons who shared their albums with Buddy Guy and Jeff Beck and four "songs from Eyes of the Sun were featured in the 2020 film Street Survivors.

"Great playing and emotional singing. Raw and righteous!" – Tinsley Ellis
