From website: dopmlm.org

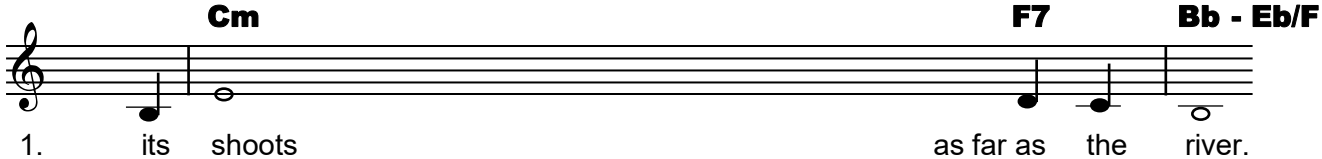

1. A vine from Egypt you trans—planted;
2. Why have you broken down its walls,
3. Once a — gain, O Lord of hosts,
4. Then we will no more with—draw from you;

1. you drove away the nations and plan—ted it.
2. So that every passer-by plucks its fruit,
3. look down from hea—ven, and see;
4. give us new life, and we will call u—pon your name.

1. It put forth its foliage to the sea,
2. The boar from the forest lays it waste,
3. take care of this vine, and protect what your right hand has planted,
4. O Lord, God of hosts, re — store us;

1. its shoots as far as the river.
2. and the beasts of the field feed u — pon it?
3. the son of man who you your—self made strong.
4. if your face shine upon us, then we shall be saved.
