

SALEM TIDINGS

No Matter Who You Are, Or Where You Are On Life's Journey, You Are Welcome Here.
Salem United Church of Christ, 5300 E. Florida Avenue, Denver, CO 80222

October 2022

Salem's focus for many years has been almost entirely inward. Worries about declining membership and declining resources have sharpened that inward focus and created a closed environment where change and growth are nearly impossible. This has in turn contributed to further declines in membership and resources. Yet, in many ways, Salem is truly a place of abundance. Decades of careful stewardship by church leadership and members have resulted in assets that could - and arguably should - be invested in turning Salem into a vibrant, welcoming, outward-facing, community-engaging house of God. My sculpture shows Salem at the center of our community, open and inviting to all. Actively reaching out, becoming an integral resource to the community, Salem is investing its abundance to spread and receive joy and hope. This investment yields returns - energizing and creating meaningful relationships among our congregation and our community - ultimately leading to greater abundance.

I thought our mission should start and come from the Bible and its teachings (that's why there is a Bible in the center) and the arrows going outward is towards others - our neighborhood, community, country, world. But we also need to work on ourselves -arrows pointing in toward the Bible.

As Salem tries to heal the divide in the church, the hand and heart represent the mission of extending a hand of love, caring, and understanding to fellow Salem individuals. Salem has always extended a helping hand to those in need, both locally and worldwide.

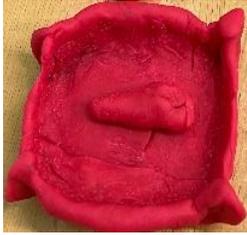

Take what you need, give what you can

The symbol I chose was the giving hands! We have missions that Salem supports!

I have witnessed both tears of sadness and tears of joy in the people of Salem. These mingle together in a tear bowl and create a healing balm that can spill out and over into the community.

It all starts in the manger!

My fish is food to eat. Rejoice, happy, alive!

We salvage and send ours to other countries for their collections

A flow of milk is given freely, just as Salem wants to give through its missions

The Salem community offers Word and Sacrament to God's world, in the love and care of God to God's people.

The open right hand symbolizes welcome, friendship, and an offer to help or listen to.

Curiosity has been called one of the 8 “C’s of the Spirit”, that is, of the Holy Spirit, along with Compassion, Courage, Clarity, Creativity, and others. Curiosity is also a main ingredient to any spiritual discernment process, including the one in progress for the past 5 months at Salem UCC. So, in this approaching time of crisp autumn air and golden color, the time of back-to-school and Church Renewal Day, I want to encourage you to be curious. Here are three ways you can exercise or reenergize your Curiosity here at Salem.

Way 1: Attend

If you haven't yet attended a Discernment Session, now is the time. If you have been faithfully attending, either regularly or sporadically, keep coming. Five or six months into a process is when Spirit moves us to restlessness and impatience, a good sign that your work in the Spirit is working! Clarity is coming that would not have been there when we began. Courage to move into definitive action gets stronger, more decisive. I dare say our process will be heating up in our next sessions, and it is the prime time for you to be involved if you are interested in and want to be part of Salem's future. Be curious enough to attend.

Way 2: Read

Back at the beginning, I suggested everyone read two books most helpful to a congregational spiritual discernment process: “Weird Church: Welcome to the 21st Century” by Beth Ann Estock and Paul Nixon, published by the UCC's Pilgrim Press, 2016, and/or “The Agile Church: Spirit-led Innovation in an Uncertain Age” by Dwight J. Zscheile, Morehouse Publishing, 2014. If you haven't read either of these works, I highly suggest you wait no longer! They are both excellent resources for churches in discernment about how to move forward, and the 30 examples in Weird Church of actual churches taking a non-traditional path give you inspiring, creative ideas to consider—ways of “being church” you may never have imagined as possibilities.

Be curious enough to read.

Way 3: Pray

Without ceasing, as Paul says. Every one of us is creative in some way or another. Let your Creativity from Spirit guide your daily prayers for the church and this process. Sing them. Dance them. Commune with nature and listen to the birds' call, the leaves rustle, the crickets chirp. Draw or color your prayers. Write a simple poem. Have Compassion on your sisters and brothers who have been working hard for 5 months in the discernment circle and hold them in your heart for their commitment and dedication. Ask for the interest and curiosity to join them. If you are one of those who have been working hard, give thanks and ask for continued strength for the journey.

Be curious enough to pray, pray, pray in whatever way God calls you to.

Please remember that I hold you of Salem UCC and our spiritual discernment process in my own heart of prayer. As I have been saying, and say again, now is the time. Do what the trees do in fall—let go of what is no longer alive in order to make room for new growth.

Be curious enough...

In the Promise of Christ, Rev. Joanne, Discernment Minister

Salem Leadership Committee

Be strong and courageous. Do not fear or be in dread of them, for it is the LORD your God who goes with you. He will not fail you or forsake you.” - Deuteronomy 31:6

Just when we get comfortable... things get shaken up. Prayerful that the Lord is with us during this time of change and transition. This month we had some great conversations in discernment about the "safety" within our church. Do you feel safe? Have you ever felt unsafe in Salem? We also discussed our priorities with discernment. Hopefully you saw Joanne's Discernment notes! SLC has scheduled a meeting with Ani Martinez, our financial bookkeeper to go over her annual review, and a meeting with Isabella Ashton for her mid-year review is being discussed. We received the unfortunate news this month that Reverend Ward is resigning due to health concerns. We pray he gets the rest he needs to recover without surgery. The SLC is thankful Joanne is willing to continue with discernment and the pulpit!! We, along with the Worship and C.E. Ministries and Rev. Joanne, continue working on planning our future worship. We are looking for laypeople to help soon. Looking ahead we will be asking for your help with our Stewardship Drive. Please attend our congregational meeting as we discuss where Salem is headed. We are not planning on voting but listening to our members. Please come with ideas and an open mind! The SLC would like to thank everyone for their support. Please reach out if you have ideas!

Building and Grounds

Our team would like to invite all members and friends of Salem to our annual Fall Workday on Saturday, October 22, 9-12. We will be focusing on indoor projects: re-organizing the storage area, cleaning the Sanctuary, cleaning the Community Room and tables. Lunch will be provided. This past month's projects included: Roger (on a very hot day) repairing leaks in the Community Room roof. Deciding the placement of CtK's new shed in the backyard. Welcoming the Virginia Village Homeowners Association's meeting at our church on September 13. This was the Association's first meeting in two years and, having lost their previous meeting space, they were very grateful to our church for providing meeting space. The Building and Grounds team meets regularly after the Men's Coffee Club on Wednesdays, 10:30 a.m. You are invited to join us! We welcome questions and ideas about maintaining and using our Salem facilities.

Youth Sunday October 30th

Sunday, October 30th Salem will hold an "All Hallows" youth and family worship service at 9:30 a.m. Everyone is invited to come in costume, or funny hat, and join in worship with our young and young at heart. Following worship, we will have pumpkin carving for young and old in the Community Room. You are invited to bring your own pumpkin, but we will have some pumpkins available to carve. So, bring your pumpkin and your pumpkin-spiced latte and join in the fun!

Mission Moments

We are all aware of the problems people here in the US and around the world are facing from natural disasters to poverty and war. Neighbors in Need – a 5 for 5 UCC ministry that makes an effort to ease the burdens families are facing. Please consider supporting October’s mission and lend a hand to a neighbor in need. Do you have a friend or co-worker that would be willing to sign up for the King Soopers reward program? This would provide additional monies to support Salem’s Operating Fund.
