Message from the President

The Prez Sez:

Our Gulf Breeze Arts next meeting/workshop is happening Tuesday, March 2nd, 6pm, at the Community Center.

This will be our 2nd 'Let's Art' workshop. We will bring our art materials to work on painting projects, and again, share our tools and learn more about the Portability of successful art.

Water containers will be supplied. Masks will be necessary. Fred Brownell will conduct a 15 minute tutorial / instruction session on getting us started, using his 'Tropical Sunset' painting as a subject.

We have two new members. Welcome Lynn Zehr and Janice Duke. Hopefully new members will join.

Our evening hours of 6 pm till... can be a deterrent in travel. We might suggest new hours. For example: 3 to 5, or 4 to 6. Will Gulf Breeze find some normalcy by the end of March?

If our workshops are successful, an additional session during the month is also a possibility. So 'Let's Art' and prepare our projects to bring with us March 2nd. Feel free to call or Email me with any questions. See Your Togetherness Soon. Scott Stahler 850-255-0559 stahler_scott@yahoo.com

Gulf Breeze Arts Inc. (GBAI)

The Gulf Breeze Arts Inc. met at the Gulf Breeze Community Center on February 2, 2021 for essentially two meetings. The first was a brief session at 5:30pm to determine whether or not to have the 2021 Art Festival. Vice President Ralph Thomas reported on his meetings with City Manager Samantha Able and Director of Parks & Recreation Ron Pulley. Both gave him their opinions but reminded him that the final decision had to be made by the membership of GBAI. Following discussion the group voted unanimously to cancel the Art Festival Gulf Breeze Celebrates the Arts for the second year in a row.

The second meeting was called to order at 6:05pm by President Scott Stahler who had invited these members to a fun meeting entitled Let's Art. Masks were required, water jars and tablecloths were supplied and tables were set up for social distancing. Members were encouraged to paint, draw or do multi-medium together. So the group worked on unfinished creations and new ideas as well as critiquing discussing and sharing their work with one another.

They did take some time out to participate in a raffle to vie for the prize. Linda Devins was the lucky winner of a Wooden Bowl provided by Ralph Thomas. The next meeting of the Gulf Breeze Arts Inc. meeting will be March 2, 2021 at the Community Center.
