GROUP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Responsibility Clause:

American Classic Tours, Inc., its employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, successors, and assigns (collectively, American Classic Tours), does not own, operate or control any person or entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, motorcoach or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, entertainment or sightseeing operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, American Classic Tours is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity, or of any other third party.

Without limitation, American Classic Tours is not responsible for any injury, loss, or damage to person or property, death, delay or inconvenience in connection with the provision of any goods or services resulting from, but not limited to, acts of government, acts of God or force majeure, war, civil unrest, insurrection, strikes or other labor activities, criminal conduct, threatened or actual terrorist activities, financial or other defaults by or of suppliers, lost or stolen belongings, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, motorcoaches or other means of transportation or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely, vehicular incidents, dangers associated with or bites from animals, pests or insects, sanitation problems, food poisoning, lack of or quality of medical care, illness or disease, epidemics or the threat thereof, difficulty in evacuation in case of a medical or other emergency, or for any other cause beyond the direct control of American Classic Tours. Under no circumstances is American Classic Tours obligated to refund the cost of any purchased travel insurance. American Classic Tours is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including without limitation, United States Department of State, Centers for Disease Control, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind.

Changes in Hotels or Itinerary:

Changes in hotel or itinerary may be made at the discretion of American Classic Tours or your local ground operator as it or they deem necessary or desirable.

Alcohol/Drug Policy:

American Classic Tours has a zero-tolerance rule for possession or drinking of alcohol for any participants under the age of 21 and/or possession or use of marijuana or any illegal drug or drug paraphernalia by any participant. Any participant violating this rule is subject to immediate expulsion from the tour. In any such case, the student or his or her parent or guardian is responsible for transporting the participant home and waives any claim for any refund of any portion of the tour cost.

Cancellations due to Governmental Action or Impossibility of Performance:

In the event a tour is cancelled or postponed due to the actions of any governmental or civil authority, school or school district, or a cancellation is caused for any other reason beyond the control of American Classic Tours, tour participants will be entitled to a refund of monies paid less non-recoverable expenses prepaid or incurred by American Classic Tours and the non-refundable booking deposit.

Cancellations by American Classic Tours:

American Classic Tours reserves the right to cancel or postpone any tour, and except as further provided in and specifically limited by the Cancellations due to Governmental Action or Impossibility of Performance paragraph, its sole obligation is to refund all monies received by it for any tour it cancels.

Miscellaneous:

Tour participants are solely responsible for securing their own passports, visas, medical inoculations, reviewing State Department, Centers for Disease Control and other advisories or warnings, etc. American Classic Tours reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a member of any tour. Participants are expected to exercise sound judgment, caution and consideration for people, places, and things while on the tour and to be attentive and responsive to the guidelines set forth by the tour leader(s) and American Classic Tours. Failure to do so or engaging in other such conduct may affect the welfare of the participant, the operation of the tour and/or the well-being of others and, in the sole judgment of American Classic Tours or Sponsor, may result in the participant being removed from the tour at his or her own expense with no refund forthcoming. These terms and conditions can be changed only by a writing signed by an officer of American Classic Tours and they are applicable to any postponed or transferred trip, except that the dates referenced in the Standard Cancellation Policy will relate to the originally scheduled departure date.

No Third-Party Beneficiaries:

No third-party beneficiaries are intended to be or are created by this Agreement.

TOUR INCLUSIONS

Transportation:

Air¹: Flight schedule to be determined when the airlines open their books for 2024 departures. The price will be adjusted once the booking is made.

Airline	Flight Number	Date	Departure/Arrival City	Departure/Arrival Time

Airline Seat Assignments: As a courtesy service, airline seat assignments are requested on your behalf and, when available. Assignments reflect the best available seats at the time of booking. PARTICIPANT TERMS AND CONDITIONS²

Responsibility clause:

American Classic Tours, Inc., its employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, successors, and assigns (collectively, American Classic Tours), does not own, operate or control any person or entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, motorcoach or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, entertainment or sightseeing operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, American Classic Tours is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity, or of any other third party.

Without limitation, American Classic Tours is not responsible for any injury, loss, or damage to person or property, death, delay or inconvenience in connection with the provision of any goods or services resulting from, but not limited to, acts of government, acts of God or force majeure, war, civil unrest, insurrection, strikes or other labor activities, criminal conduct, threatened or actual terrorist activities, financial or other defaults by or of suppliers, lost or stolen belongings, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, motorcoaches or other means of transportation or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely, vehicular incidents, dangers associated with or bites from animals, pests or insects, sanitation problems, food poisoning, lack of or quality of medical care, illness or disease, epidemics or the threat thereof, difficulty in evacuation in case of a medical or other emergency, or for any other cause beyond the direct control of American Classic Tours. Under no circumstances is American Classic Tours obligated to refund the cost of any purchased travel insurance. American Classic Tours is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including without limitation, United States Department of State, Centers for Disease Control, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind.

Changes in Hotels or Itinerary:

Changes in hotel or itinerary may be made at the discretion of American Classic Tours or your local ground operator as it or they deem necessary or desirable.

Miscellaneous: American Classic Tours reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a member of any tour. Participants are expected to exercise sound judgment, caution and consideration for people, places and things while on the tour and to be attentive and responsive to the guidelines or instructions set forth by the tour leader(s) and American Classic Tours. Failure to do so or engaging in other such conduct may affect the welfare of the participant, the operation of the tour and/or the well-being of others and, in the sole judgment of American Classic Tours or Sponsor, may result in the participant being removed from the tour at his or her own expense with no refund forthcoming. These terms and conditions can be changed only by a writing signed by an officer of American Classic Tours and they are applicable to any postponed or transferred trip, except that the dates referenced in the Standard Cancellation Policy will relate to the originally scheduled departure date.

Tour participants are solely responsible for securing their own passports, visas, medical inoculations, reviewing State Department advisories at <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/traveladvisories/traveladvisories.html>, Centers for Disease Control warnings at <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/list> and other advisories or warnings, etc.

Privacy: American Classic Tours retains the right, in its sole discretion, to contact participant's parents, guardian, and/or emergency contact with regard to health issues or any other matters whatsoever which relate to participant or participant's program. These rights transcend any and all privacy regulations that may apply.

Photo Release: American Classic Tours reserves the right to take photographic, video, audio or film records on any tour. American Classic Tours may use any photographs, video, audio or film records it takes or receives from participants (including, but not limited to, images it receives via email, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, PhotoVision, etc.) or which are directed to it in any media, for its own promotional and/or commercial purposes as well as for approved use by third-parties with whom American Classic Tours may engage in joint marketing, all without any remuneration to participant. Participant assigns all right, title and interest in or to any and all media in which participant's name or likeness might be used.

² The Terms and Conditions in Exhibit "C" is not a binding agreement between the group and American Classic Tours. Exhibit "C" is meant to inform the Group of what American Classic Tours requires participants or their parent or guardian to agree to as a condition for participating on the tour.

Copyright Release: Participant warrants that for any photos and/or video submitted or directed to American Classic Tours, through any media (including, but not limited to, email, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, PhotoVision, etc.), participant is the creator and copyright holder of such photos and/or video. Participant gives permission to American Classic Tours to publish such photos and/or video, in whole or in part, with or without participant's name or likeness, for its own promotional and/or commercial purposes as well as for American Classic Tours-approved use by third parties all without any remuneration to participant.

Health Proxy Forms and Medical Matters: Participant must submit to the Tour Organizer a complete and accurate Health History and Medical proxy. Any medical or physical conditions that chaperones should know or that may interfere with participant's participation on the tour or with others on the tour must be stated on the Form. Participant hereby authorizes the adults on the tour (chaperones, guides, lodging or other providers of services) to obtain emergency medical treatment for participant as they deem necessary. Participant is solely responsible for pre-program, program, and post-program medical care in all respects, including, but not limited to, obtaining and taking necessary medication(s), vaccinations and any other medical care. Participant must consult a physician qualified in travel medicine, immunizations, and infectious/tropical diseases prior to trip departure. American Classic Tours may, but is not required to, attempt to bring a participant to a medical facility for emergency treatment, but it is not responsible for any negligent or unsuccessful treatment thereat.

Alcohol/Drug Policy: American Classic Tours has a zero-tolerance rule for possession or drinking of alcohol for any participants under the age of 21 and/or possession or use of marijuana, or any illegal drug or drug paraphernalia by any participant. Any participant violating this rule is subject to immediate expulsion from the trip. In any such case, the student or his or her parent or guardian is responsible for transporting the participant home, and waives any claim for any refund of any portion of the trip cost.

Cancellations due to Governmental Action or Impossibility of Performance: In the event a trip is cancelled or postponed due to the actions of any governmental or civil authority, school or school district, or a cancellation is caused for any other reason beyond the control of American Classic Tours, tour participants will be entitled to a refund of monies paid less the non-refundable booking deposit and any non-recoverable expenses prepaid or incurred by American Classic Tours.

Cancellations by American Classic Tours: American Classic Tours reserves the right to cancel or postpone any tour, and except as further provided in and specifically limited by the Cancellations due to Governmental Action or Impossibility of Performance paragraph, its sole obligation is to refund all monies received by it for any tour it cancels.

Binding Arbitration: I agree that any dispute concerning, relating or referring to this Agreement, the brochure or any other literature concerning my tour, or the tour itself, shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§1-16, either according to the then existing Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or pursuant to the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc. (JAMS). Such proceedings will be governed by substantive (but not procedural) New York law and will take place in Mineola, NY. The arbitrator and not any federal, state, or local court or agency shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. Please understand that by agreeing to these terms and conditions, you (and we) are waiving our right to a trial by jury. Any arbitration commenced against American Classic Tours must be on behalf of only the signatory to this Agreement and his or her immediate family members who travelled with signatory, such as a parent, spouse or child. Under no circumstances can participant be part of a class or other joint action.
