

Do not pump
oil
into the sea

The image shows the interior of a boat cabin. On the left is a white built-in seat with a quilted pattern and a blue border. In the center is a white storage compartment with a door that is slightly ajar, revealing two electrical outlets inside. On the right is another white built-in seat, also with a quilted pattern and a blue border. Above this seat is a white cushioned backrest. A small red sign with white text is mounted on the wall above the storage compartment. The floor is white and has a small square drain cover. A metal handrail is visible on the far left.
