BURGER BATTLE RULES

- All competing burgers must be created, assembled & cooked during the Burger Battle & only inside the competition area.
- All contestants will receive 3 pounds of 80/20 ground beef to create three identical burger servings and/or plates. Each burger must primarily be composed of ground beef (approximately 90%). Additional ingredients are permitted, but must be supplied by the contestant in a plastic container - no glass! Extra beef is provided for testing.
- All entries must include the burger name and ingredients on provided form. This information will be supplied to the judges.
- Burgers may include any combination of condiments (ketchup, mayonnaise, salsa, mustard, etc.), spreads (tapenade, pesto, etc.), sauces (barbecue, pepper and/or chili, marinara, etc.), cheeses and toppings (bacon, onion, tomato, avocado, lettuce, etc.) Every component of the burger must be placed between buns or bread pieces, or served open-face on a bread product. Unadorned wooden skewers may be used to hold burgers in place for presentation. Garnishes and side items may be used. If adding a side you may supply your own plates.
- Contestants must bring adequate supplies for three (3) identical burger servings and/or plates and bring their own work utensils (knives, bowls, spoons, spatulas, etc.), cutting boards, small hand tools, cookware and presentation and/or serving dishes and must be transported in plastic containers - no glass!
- Burgers must be cooked to at least medium temperature. Judging will be based on presentation, overall taste and originality.
- Burgers must be turned in to judges 1 hour after the showdown begins. Awards will be at 4pm.
- Prep space and serving container will be provided. SPECIAL AWARD to the best western themed area & team!!
