

Cocoon

natural fibre shrouds and burial clothes

Thank-you for your interest in Cocoon Clothing.

Andie Cooper designs and makes simple, natural –fibre clothing, shrouds and coffin liners for use in burials and cremations.

All the items are completely biodegradable and so are appropriate for natural and eco-funerals.

The clothing is simple and loose-fitting, fastening with ties at the back. Andie makes a gathered gown, a pyjama-style suit, and a traditional shroud.

Organic quilted cotton coffin liners and covers are also available.

The garments are bespoke and hand-made with care by Andie in Derbyshire, from fairly traded fabrics and thread, and can be made in any size and a wide range of colours.
