A Recipe for Reflection during a world wide Pandemic

During our Lenten season, we are inviting you to pick someone to share a Lenten Soup with and let us enjoy it together as we listen to our LIVE devotional with Pastor every Wednesday night at 6:30pm

This is how it is going to work:

Sign up to pick a member of our congregation to deliver a soup to,
Contact the family to arrange for delivery (be mindful of social distancing and face mask. Make sure they feel comfortable with sharing the soup with them or vice versa)

You can sign up for a one time or for every Wednesday during Lent.

You can pick the same family or pick a different family each week.

Go to Singup.com, pick the family, mark the days you want to share the soup. Get their contact info and coordinate with them.

Contact the church office if you have any questions
(760)724-5440 or email to info@firstlutheranvista.org

NOAH'S ARK NEWS

One of our themes this month is Dental Health and we will learn "Tooth Brush" song, learn the proper way to take care of our teeth that God gave us, a practice our good eating habits that keep our teeth strong.

We will celebrate
Happy Valentine's Day
 Thursday the 11th

SCHOOL CLOSED
Lincoln's Birthday
 and
President's Day,
 Friday the 12th and
 Monday the 15th.

On Wednesday/Thursday the 24th & 25th we will celebrate all that God has made that is purple on

PURPLE DAYS!

LOVE is the theme this month. The children will learn about how God made their heart and how it works in their body. God wants us to love each other with our heart, care for our family and friends. They will be sharing that love through the giving of Valentine Cards in class and to others around our campus.

This is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another.
