SAFETY MEASURES

Our priority is to keep everyone safe as we congregate in our sanctuary. These are a few things to remember and what to expect as we come to in-person worships.

Please wear your face mask at all times.

Stop by the registration table at the entrance and give your name and number.

Temperature will be taken

We will provide you with hand sanitizer and individual communion. (masks are available if you forgot one)

You will see red hymnals on our pews marking the social distance, so please sit only where you do not see hymnals in place.

If you have a large party with you, sit towards the back pews.

If you have a small party, sit towards the front pews.

Outdoor sitting will be available if desired.

There will not be any fellowship time until our county color tier changes to a more safe time.

THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR COOPERATION AS WE SLOWLY COME BACK INTO OUR CHURCH.
