NATIONAL CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

In this month of April, let us renew our personal and diocesan commitment to protect children, youth, and vulnerable adults from all matters related to abuse. April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month in the U.S. but every month is child abuse prevention month in the Diocese of San Bernardino! In 2008, Prevent Child Abuse America introduced the blue pinwheel as the national symbol of child abuse prevention. The pinwheel represents the playfulness, joy, and innocence of childhood, and serves as a meaningful reminder of the happy, safe childhood every child deserves. Last weekend, St. Frances X. Cabrini Religious Education distributed pinwheels in support of this important cause. Thank you for your support!

En este mes de abril, renovemos nuestro compromiso personal y diocesano de proteger a los niños, jóvenes y adultos vulnerables de toda forma de abuso. Abril es el Mes Nacional de la Prevención del Abuso Infantil en los Estados Unidos, pero en la Diócesis de San Bernardino, icada mes es el mes de la prevención del abuso infantil! En el año 2008, Prevent Child Abuse America presentó el molinillo azul como el símbolo nacional de la prevención del abuso infantil. El molinillo representa la alegría, el juego y la inocencia de la niñez, y sirve como un recordatorio significativo de la infancia feliz y segura que deseamos para todos los niños.

El fin de semana pasado, el programa de Educación Religiosa de St. Frances X. Cabrini distribuyó molinillos en apoyo a esta importante causa. Gracias por su apoyo!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

2nd Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy)

April 12, 2026

John 20:19-31

“Then he said to Thomas, ‘Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.’” (John 20:27) In my early 20s, I volunteered at a parish youth group. I witnessed teens encountering Jesus with a fresh, romantic wonder that reminded me of my own teenage conversion. But something had changed in me. I was quietly jaded and cynical. When teens shared stories of encountering Christ, I’d want to sarcastically murmur, “Well, good for you.” I had grown suspicious of the zeal I once knew. Then we brought the group on a pilgrimage. I was standing in an old church in France, ignoring a long-winded tour guide. I found myself before a crucifix. In that moment, I heard something, not audibly, but unmistakably in my heart: “I came to be your friend... and you wish to be my enemy? Why do you stand far from me? I suffer gladly for you. I was pierced for you. Why do you run from me?” My heart opened. I saw how cold and cynical I had become. But Jesus had not given up on me. He had returned, and his mercy broke through. So I can relate to the scoffing — and transformation — of Thomas when the Risen Jesus presents his wounds for inspection. Thomas is not simply doubting; he is guarded, suspicious, even cynical. But Jesus comes to him. No lecture. Just understanding and mercy. He invites Thomas to touch his wounds. This burns away his cynicism like the morning mist. Divine Mercy Challenge: This week, rejoice with someone who is newly alive in faith. If your own heart has grown skeptical or tired, ask Jesus to help you. He will.

— Father John Muir
