In his song Lose Yourself, Eminem raps, “the mood all changed.” We all know those moments when life suddenly turns serious. That’s what happens in today’s Gospel. Jesus learns that John the Baptist—his cousin, friend, and forerunner—has been murdered. Instead of responding with anger or despair, Jesus withdraws to pray. From that deep communion with the Father comes compassion: He returns to feed the hungry crowd. Out of grief comes generosity. Out of sorrow comes life. We face the same choice when suffering enters our lives. We can react impulsively, or we can turn to Christ in prayer, allowing Him to transform our pain into compassion and self-giving love. Prayer: Lord Jesus, when life grows difficult, draw me close to You. In Your presence, transform my sorrow into love that nourishes others. Amen.

— Father John Muir
