Reminder: Please do not use outside candles other than those sold at the parish office. Over this past weekend, a candle was used that was not one of the approved candles from our parish office, and it caused the candle protector cylinder to melt. It is important that we follow these guidelines to help keep our parish safe moving forward.

Recordatorio: Por favor, no utilicen velas externas que no sean las que se venden en la oficina parroquial. Durante el pasado fin de semana, se utilizó una vela que no era una de las velas aprobadas por nuestra oficina parroquial, y esto provocó que se derritiera el cilindro protector de la vela. Es importante que sigamos estas normas para ayudar a mantener nuestra parroquia segura en adelante.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Baptism of the Lord

January 11, 2026

Matthew 3:13-17

Apple once ran a commercial called "Behind the Mac – Greatness," showing artists creating powerful work, with the line: "They don't wait for greatness. They make it." It's inspiring—but it also raises a question: if greatness is what we produce, what happens when we can't anymore? When the work fails or the spotlight fades, where is our worth?

Today's Gospel offers a different vision. Before Jesus preaches or performs a miracle, the Father declares at his baptism: "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." His greatness comes not from what he does, but from who he is.

The same is true for you. At your baptism, God called you beloved. Your identity is not earned or achieved—it is received. That is a greatness nothing can take away.

This week, reflect on your baptism. Thank God for it, remember its date, or visit the church where it happened. Let your identity be rooted there.

— Father John Muir
