GOSPEL MEDITATION

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 28, 2026 Matthew 10:27-42

I still remember the first homily I preached as a new deacon. The Gospel was this one: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me." (Matthew 10:37-38) At first, those words seemed shocking. If anyone else said them, we might call it prideful or extreme. Yet Jesus can say them because He is the Son of God, the source of all life and love. Over the years, I've discovered that when Christ comes first, everything else finds its proper place—family, friendships, vocation, and even my own identity. Putting Him first is not a loss; it is the way we truly find ourselves and those we love. This week, consider one thing or one person you may be placing before the Lord, and consciously offer it back to Him in prayer.

— Father John Muir
