GOSPEL MEDITATION

6th Sunday of Easter May 10, 2026 John 14:15-21

In my family, the word "orphans" brings tears. My father was adopted as a baby and often shared how his parents didn't just take him in—they chose him, gave him a name, and a place to belong. Even now, that gift moves him deeply.

This is the tenderness behind Jesus' words: "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you" (John 14:18). Though he goes, he does not abandon us. He gives us the Holy Spirit, who dwells in us and makes us part of God's family.

Through the sacraments, prayer, and the life of the Church, we grow in this truth: we are not orphans, but beloved children of God.
