GOSPEL MEDITATION

7th Sunday of Easter    May 17, 2026    John 17:1-11

Not long after my brother's first daughter, Mary Elise, was born, I asked him what it felt like to become a father. He said, "When I first held her, I was in shock. I just kept saying, 'I am your dad.'" In that moment, his life changed. He stepped into a new identity marked by love and sacrifice. This reflects what Jesus means when he prays, "Consecrate them in the truth" (John 17:17). To be consecrated is to be set apart in love and sent into the world with a new identity rooted in Christ. Whenever we speak deep truths — "I have sinned," "I forgive you," "I believe" — we are renewed and transformed. And the deepest truth is this: we belong to the Risen Christ. Our lives are no longer just our own. What truth do you need to embrace more deeply this week?
