THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

"And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day." - Jn 6:39-40

"Y la voluntad del que me envió es que yo no pierda nada de lo que él me ha dado, sino que lo resucite en el último día. La voluntad de mi Padre consiste en que todo el que vea al Hijo y crea en él, tenga vida eterna y yo lo resucite en el último día". - Jn 6, 39-40

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 2, 2025

John 6:37-40

I lost my wallet this year, and replacing everything was a hassle. A kind friend gave me a beautiful new one — which I lost a month later, along with all my new cards. No matter what I did, I couldn't recover either wallet and eventually gave up hope. But Jesus is not like me. In today's Gospel (John 6:37-40), he says, "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me." Unlike me, Jesus never loses what the Father has entrusted to him. He seeks every lost soul — like the shepherd searching for the stray sheep or the woman rejoicing over her recovered coin — even descending to the depths of death to reclaim what seems gone forever. On All Souls' Day, this gives us deep hope: even the dead are not lost to Jesus. Nothing given to him is ever truly gone. Every soul, however wandering or forgotten, rests securely in his care and will be raised on the last day.

— Father John Muir
