Soft Enough for a King

St. Frances X. Cabrini is excited to announce a special Advent tradition leading up to Christmas! We are pleased to offer the inspiring book Soft Enough for a King, along with a handmade wooden manger, a plush Baby Jesus, and paper strips to use as “straw” for recording acts of service and kindness.

The purpose of this kit is to fill the manger with fresh “straw”—each strand representing a good deed—as a reminder of the true meaning of Christmas. This kit makes a thoughtful addition to your home, your spiritual reading, or a meaningful gift for others. The cost is $20 and can be purchased at the parish office. During Advent, we will also have a life-sized manger, allowing children to bring their own “straw” with acts of service and kindness to help fill our parish's manger with good deeds. On Christmas, we will place Baby Jesus in the manger.

For more information, please call the Parish Office.

Many thanks, from our Respect Life Ministry, for your generous and multitude of donations last weekend for our Life Choice Centers. In spite of the bad weather we collected almost 3 truck loads of gifts and Thanks be to God for holding off the rain on Monday morning and for the time volunteered we were able to deliver the donations safe and sound. Thank you again for you continued support and generosity.
