24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." - Mt 18:21-22

Pedro se acercó a Jesús y le preguntó: "Si mi hermano me ofende, ¿cuántas veces tengo que perdonarlo? ¿Hasta siete veces?" Jesús le contestó: "No sólo hasta siete, sino hasta setenta veces siete". - Mt 18, 21-22

Come & See Session: Are you curious about the Catholic Faith? Join us for an informal Q&A in classroom 9 from 9:15am – 10:15am.

In my parish, there was once a new employee who frequently told me she was sorry for various imperfections in her work. It could be a little tiring. I finally told her, "You know, you don't have to say 'sorry' so often." She looked me right in the eyes and said, "Father, you're right. I'm sorry." Her ear-to-ear grin betrayed that she enjoyed the irony — and that she would keep asking for forgiveness as often as she needed it.

The Gospel reading this week proclaims to us that God, in Jesus, delights in numerous requests for, and the granting of, forgiveness. To Peter's question, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus responds, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." In other words, Peter, stop counting.

Christian life should be marked by a commitment to frequent forgiveness. God never tires of forgiving us. His limitless love has overcome the power of vengeance, hatred, and division. We tap into that each and every time we ask for forgiveness or extend it to another.

How beautiful our hearts become when they become accustomed to frequent forgiveness! How joyful and attractive become our marriages, families, and parish communities! How light our souls feel when unburdened by the habit of keeping score.

Challenge: Name one thing, small or large, for which you could ask forgiveness from someone in your life. Then do it.

— Father John Muir

Fall Combined Collection

Living in HOPE!

The Fall Combined Collection (FCC)

I wish to thank you for your devotion in carrying out the ministry of God. The goal of the Fall Combined Collection is to share our Catholic Faith with individuals across our diocese, the nation, and the world. This is achieved by providing lay and consecrated Catholics with the necessary tools to extend the mission of Our Lord and Savior to every corner of the earth. I invite you to give generously to the Fall Combined Collection. Thank you, and God Bless.

Church Among Black and Native Americans

Ensures clergy for baptisms, marriages, and funerals on our six local Indian reservations and offers Catholic School scholarships and cultural evangelization for Catholics of African Descent.

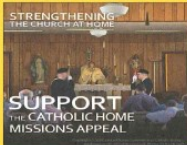

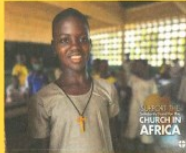

Church in Latin America

Enables our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean do not have access to church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, rugged rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers.

The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa

Supports African Church leaders by funding programs that meet local pastoral needs. This special collection helps the Church in Africa share the Gospel through evangelization, catechesis, formation of priests and religious sisters, and mass media while also building peace and reconciliation between neighbors.

Catholic Home Missions

Helps our brothers and sisters here in the United States who do not have access to basic pastoral services like Mass, the sacraments, and religious education. Your support helps these mission dioceses form vibrant faith communities and strengthens the Church at home.

Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's Fall Combined Collection as an act of mercy and charity.
