

ADELPHI GLENBORRODATE BATCH 7

9 YEAR OLD

1 of only 738 bottles

A rich colour of warm copper with a moderate bead. On the nose we found fig rolls, dates and mint choc chip cookies. Almost like a summer's tea-time in the kitchen garden. The palate brought warm scones with strawberry jam, orange blossom and recently watered rhubarb.

Ardnamurchan Distillery

Glenborrodale is a small village just two miles from Adelphi's Ardnamurchan distillery, and this blended malt is named in its honour.

Situated on the southern shore of the picturesque Ardnamurchan Peninsula in the Highland area of Scotland, Glenborrodale Castle – which is built of red Dumfriesshire sandstone – boasts about 132.99 acres of grounds and includes the Isle of Risga and Eilean an Feidh.
