

BREWDOG DISTILLING CO. LONEWOLF

40%

Fanatical craft and obsessive distilling let us worship juniper in all its raw, imperfect glory (using 5 times more juniper than your average craft gin). The world of gin has become mainstream. Dainty botanicals and floral nonsense are the category norm, and they're masking all kinds of sins.

We make our gin from scratch (something not many gin makers can claim), using our own Rogue Wave Vodka as the base spirit. Quality is everything. Lavender and citrus notes run alongside a forage of feral pine needles, but it's the fierce juniper backbone that stands this gin tall.
