

Universal Indemnification & Host/Vendor Liability Notice

This notice serves as a Universal Indemnification and Liability Disclaimer from ForEvery-Body PMA, a Private Membership Association organized under a 504(c) Eleemosynary Trust structure and protected by the First and Fourteenth Amendments.

ForEvery-Body PMA operates in the private domain. All exchanges-whether products, services, or experiences-are conducted exclusively between private members and are not offered to the general public. These exchanges are spiritual, educational, and voluntary in nature.

This notice applies to:

- Event hosts and venue coordinators
- Storefronts, gyms, and businesses that carry ForEvery-Body PMA products
- Wellness centers or facilities offering shelf or booth space
- Any public or private partner interfacing with our PMA

1. Private Nature of Offerings

All ForEvery-Body PMA offerings are administered under private contract and protected by ecclesiastical trust. No transaction is to be construed as public commerce.

2. Indemnification & Coverage

ForEvery-Body PMA assumes full internal liability for the activity of its members and trustees. We maintain private liability coverage applicable to member-facing and third-party interactions. Hosts, businesses, and locations are not responsible for any effects related to our member activity.

3. Dispute Resolution

Any issues arising between members and the PMA are resolved internally, via private agreement or arbitration. Third parties are not subject to or liable for such matters.

4. Jurisdiction & Protection

This PMA and all operations fall under the governance of a 504(c) Eleemosynary Trust. As such, we are exempt from public business regulations and external control. This includes regulatory inspections, licensing, and insurance mandates not applicable to our private domain.
