Club Meeting, Churchville Rec Center, Jan 10, 7PM.

How about bringing in all that good stuff you got for Christmas for Show and Tell.

GENERAL CLUB NEWS...

1. Yes we got the elections done. The nominees got overwhelming support. There wasn't a close race in the lot of them. Don't make me type the winners again, just look at our new Masthead.
2. And yes, we did get some new blood. Ron Lazzeri has graciously accepted the position of Treasurer. This is very fortunate for us as Ron brings with him an extensive background from the financial industry. Some of our accounts may not be as large as what Ron normally handles, but he assures me that ours are much more rewarding and interesting.
3. And the food...it was outstanding...shrimp and wings and cold cuts and dips and desserts and sides and sodas and bottled water. I told my wife it's worth the $35 membership to take her to this grand buffet and then I fly free all year round.
4. And then there was the great raffle. The Snyder children put on a harder sell than the lottery. And then when everybody was out of gas Bob Walker jumps in for a final round of hard core selling. What a great program. And you want to know the winners:
Cecil Davis won the YAK 54
Bob Steininger won the Revolver and Dan Bowman won the Piper J-3 Cub.
All well deserved. These guys spent big bucks, not just 3 tickets to win 3 planes. Congratulations to all. A special thanks goes out to the Bel Air Hobby Works for providing these raffle prizes at a discount.
5. This was a sad year for the Club, we lost two members, Jim Cannon and Charles Fruhling. We sent a gift to Johns Hopkins for cancer research to honor Jim and to Joppa-Magnolia V.F. Co in honor of Charles. The Club received very appreciative letters from both.

A FUEL RUN?...

Tom Obringer is still trying to determine if there is enough interest in a fuel purchase in 2008. If so, orders will be taken at the January and February 2008 meetings.

WRAM SHOW BUS TRIP...

The RCMB Club is planning a trip to the WRAM Show Feb 23, 2008. The bus will leave Timonium park and ride at 6AM and also pick up at the 95 park and ride at 6:30AM and return at 7PM. Cost is $32 per person, this is only for the
