Dear Mr. Barrow,

It seems we have both agreed to appear on the Psychedelic Invest to answer questions of the shareholders of Mind Medicine (MindMed) Inc. (“MindMed”, the “Company”). In the interest of promoting pointed, intellectual discussion, I believe that shareholders would benefit from a debate between us (the “Debate”) on Thursday or Friday of this week on the following issues:

1. Intellectual Property and Product Development,
2. Shareholder Dilution,
3. Costs, and
4. Corporate Governance/Conflicts of Interest

I think a live debate with Adam from Psychedelic Invest moderating would be a great format. It would provide an invaluable service to really flesh out the details of a lot of concerns shareholders have and provide intellectual synthesis on the issues. I hope that we will both use the results of the Debate to refine our respective strategic visions for the improvement and creation of shareholder value.

Sincerely,

Jake Freeman
