

Where do we base our expertise?

Aside from the team’s formidable composition as a coalition of former public sector military senior officers and elite enlisted personnel, with years of dedicated service,

Our team members are hand selected for your problem set featuring senior experience leading c-suite executives in resiliency solutions for heavily regulated industries including

Banking, Insurance, Healthcare, and Pharmaceuticals as well as;

Manufacturing, Utilities, and Media.

About Us

We are a multi-entity veteran led agency dedicated to keeping communities safe and businesses resilient.

We do Business Differently Here

Our unique organizational structure features no hierarchical levels between employees,

This means that all employees have the same power and authority to engage your business problem set free of impediments.

The lack of hierarchy allows true collaborative expertise and vision that drives home exceptional results.
