

ABANDONED VEHICLES

COURSE OVERVIEW

Local authorities have a role to investigate reports of abandoned vehicles. But not all vehicle reported as abandoned will truly be abandoned. The vehicles may instead be untaxed, parked irresponsibly or have become part of a neighbour dispute.

Therefore, it is important that those responding to reports of abandoned vehicles know what to look for and how to deal with these correctly.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Discuss the legislation surrounding abandoned vehicles.
- Consider how to effectively investigate reports of different categories of abandoned vehicles.
- Be confident in undertaking on-site inspections in respect of abandoned vehicle reports.
- Know when to consider serving a notice in respect of an abandoned vehicle and the process on expiry of the notice.
