Sensorial - Smell	Smell to picture match	At the toddler age level, the jars should be clear (primary age level jars are opaque) and the items being smelled should be whole (garlic, clove, cinnamon, orange peel, etc.), not an essential oil or liquid which is too abstract for toddlers. Matching jars or cards should have a picture that is easy to match to the item in the jar.		X
Sensorial - Smell	Blindfolds	Can be used with smelling, tasting, mystery bags and more. These Blindfolds have a comfortable opening for the nose and a Velcro™ fastener so the child may put it on without assistance. Includes a red, orange, green and blue blindfold.		X
Sensorial - Taste	Tasting Overview	At the toddler age level, tasting discrimination is done primarily by orally describing tastes during food preparation, self serve snack, and lunch. Tasting jars (sour, salty, sweet, bitter) are for the primary age level and up.		X
Language - Oral	Singing and adult instruments	Teachers are encouraged to sing and play instruments (if possible) any time of the day.		X
Language - Oral	Oral Language Materials Overview	The toddler - primary oral language materials are set up as a five stage series of progressive lessons using the same objects which are changed via a monthly theme for the first four stages. Objects should be reality based, not cartoonish. Pictures should ideally be taken (if not provided) of the exact physical object they are matching, not a general photo or drawing. The sequence, in order of difficulty, is: 1. Nomenclature (vocabulary) with one object, 2. Object to object matching, 3. Objects to picture matching, 4. Picture to picture matching, 5. Advanced activities like parts of a whole, classification, associations, etc.	Nomenclature should introduce objects via a three part lesson. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. This is a cow.</li> <li>2. Show me the cow.</li> <li>3. Which one is the cow?</li> </ol> Nomenclature and object to object is not age appropriate for primary. The previous steps are not needed.	X

Language - Oral	Toddler Language Monthly Themes: The 4 Step Sequence	The MontessoriPrintShopUSA Toddler (can be used for primary too) Language object and picture sets can be used for monthly themes. They require you to buy 4 of each set (each comes with one object and two sets of cards) resulting in having 4 objects and 8 sets of cards allowing you to fulfill all four parts of the language progression: (1) nomenclature - object only, (2) object to object, (3) object to picture, (4) picture to picture, and you get five extra sets of picture cards to replace as needed.	The sets pictured here are starter sets, teachers are encouraged to make their own monthly themes. That said, these sets come laminated with objects saving a lot of time. The pictures in these sets do not precisely match the objects - if you make your own sets take pictures of the exact objects that you purchase. Sets contain up to 12 objects per set, teachers may choose to reduce the number of objects presented at once. Teachers can change up the display mid month or simply make a theme spread over two months.	X
Language - Oral	1. Nomenclature	The school year's 12 Monthly toddler themes should include objects that a toddler could be reasonably expected to encounter in their life in the next three months (body parts, transportation) to build their vocabulary. Themes such as space, dinosaurs, etc. are not age appropriate as they are not in a toddler's every day world. Examples include: 1. Florida, 2. Ocean, 3. Garden, 4. Fruits & Vegetables, 5. Forest Life, 6. Transportation, 7. Weather, 8. Family/Pets, 9. External Body, 10. Zoo, 11. Insects, 12. Farm		X
Language - Oral	2. Object to Object Matching	The TOOB brand small objects sets are reality based (not cartoonish), offer a wide variety of theme ideas, and are a great physical size for language lessons.		X
