Notes from Nancy

We have started of our Lenten journey - a time for deep reflection and meditation. In the middle of a busy week we gathered for Ash Wednesday to remember what we try to forget: sin and death are killing us.

And this is our beginning. A season of lengthening days, the gift of time stretching toward life. Time to prepare to be born anew by water and the Spirit. Time to practice the way of Jesus, to tend the earth, to remember the poor, to do things that make for peace. Time to turn and return to God who is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love. This is our beginning and our end. "Worship Guidebook for Lent"

As I write this, the weather folks are predicting snow and very cold temperatures after sunny and warm days. But even in the midst of cold, I do know that the southerly breezes and the tulips and the smell of spring rain are just out of reach..... and I know our Redeemer lives!

For me this is an extraordinary time of the year. Not only is our weather in turmoil but our souls as well as we struggle to understand the events leading up to Easter.

We continue to contemplate the suffering and death of our Lord at the hands of the crowd gathered - people like you and me.

But thankfully as Christians we already know the end of the story = we already know the Good News of Easter - we already know the great gift we have been given.

Jesus said, "It is finished," with that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit."

John 19:30

*"Words of chance muttered by a desperate martyr?
No Words of intent, painted by the Divine Deliverer on the canvas of sacrifice."*

No Wonder They Call Him the Savior - Max Lucado

As we continue our journey to the Joy of the Resurrection, I invite you to join with our faith community for prayer and reflection on-line each Wednesday during Lent.

“Christ on Trial”

Sermon series for Lent

CHRIST MOST CERTAINLY WAS ON TRIAL. Two thousand years have come and gone since Caiaphas and Pilate passed judgment on Jesus in Jerusalem. And though the verdict passed down at that trial was a miscarriage of justice, the result fulfilled God’s purpose: to save the world by sacrificing God’s Son.

CHRIST MOST CERTAINLY IS ON TRIAL. His saving act, his being in the world, his radical teachings all demand a reaction. Every human heart must wrestle with questions like: Who is this Christ? Is he who he claims to be? Christ demands a reply. Daily, Christ is on trial.

AS HE IS AGAIN THIS LENT. This is a series of services in which court is in session to determine who Christ is. Eye witnesses will share accounts of their encounters with Jesus. “Christ on Trial” examines evidence that demands a verdict: Who is this Jesus. . . . for you?

If there is peace in your heart,
 you will find it impossible to hate.
 If there is honesty in your heart,
 you will find it impossible to judge
 another.
 If there is love in your heart,
 then that is all there is.
 Fear is gone, as is judgment
 And the desire for violence.

LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF Season of Hope

As we approach Lent, so many of our neighbors around the world are longing to experience — to truly touch, hear, see, smell and taste — the hope that only Jesus can bring. Meanwhile, we know that many of you are restless and eager to be Christ's hands and feet in a world reeling from hardship.

During this sacred time, Immanuel will join Lutheran World Relief in serving our poorest neighbors by providing real, tangible hope. We will be gathering items for Personal Care kits to help fill LWR's empty warehouse shelves. Items needed are:

- Lightweight bath towels (between 20"x40" and 52"x27")
- Bars of bath soap (8-9 oz bars, in original wrapping)
- Toothbrushes (adult size)

Items collected through Easter Sunday, April 4.

"Always show kindness and love to others. Your words might be filling the empty places in someone's heart."
