

Freedom Foursquare is a special place, made possible by the volunteers and partners who help us serve as a beacon of light in our community. As our community continues to struggle, our outreach services have been growing. The kind and compassionate service from our team helps shine that light as they demonstrate tangible expressions of the unconditional love of God.

Anthony's Faith Journey

When Anthony first came to us off the streets, he was homeless and struggling with addiction. Since that day, he has fully committed his life to Christ, is clean and sober, and is living in a sober living house. On top of that, Anthony has stepped up to become our Thursday Lunch cook! He has been incredibly creative with the donations we receive, preparing tasty meals that our guests truly appreciate.

Partner Spotlight: Eric and Janiece Matson

Eric and Janiece, were apart of Freedom but have lived out of state for many years. They were recently home for a visit and we caught up. I asked them, "Even though you live far away and are connected to a church where you live, you have given regularly to help support the work we do at Freedom. Why is that?" They gave a beautiful reply...

"Freedom has always been home to us. From the first time we attended, we felt God's presence and unconditional love. We were both baptized prior to our marriage, and our three boys were dedicated to the Lord. Even after we moved to different states, Freedom stayed connected and supported us through life's trials and blessings.

We feel blessed to be able to support Freedom and all the good work being done. We first started to give—and continue to do so—because God pressed it on our hearts. In addition, we give because of who Freedom is and how they serve the community, especially the unhoused. All the glory and praise go to God!

As we were praying on this, God reminded us (as He often does) of a message Pastor David gave many years ago that has always stayed with us.

It was about planting a seed of faith, and how sometimes you never know when it will grow. Seeing how Freedom serves and shows love to the community through the Sunday breakfast and service, food pantry, clothing closet, and mobile shower partnerships, we can only imagine how many seeds have been planted."

The reality is that we would be unable to do this work in one of Oregon's poorest communities without the amazing partners God has brought our way. If you have ever wondered whether your investment in this ministry makes a difference, let me assure you: it does. These ministries are essential and carry an eternal impact. Our work is made possible by the generous support of people like you. Thank you for your faithful commitment to pray for and give toward this great work.
