Do you have a neighbor that could be recognized as the Resident of the Month? How about that dog or cat that you see all the time and want it to be recognized also? We are looking for you to be part of your newsletter and we would like to continue these two sections. Please email dscassociation@yahoo.com to nominate your favorite pet. However, if we can't get nominations we may replace the sections with something else.

A MESSAGE FROM DESERTSCAPE'S ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT, Cheri Kramer

Thanksgiving Day, annual national holiday in the United States and Canada celebrating the harvest and other blessings of the past year. Americans generally believe that their Thanksgiving is modeled on a 1621 harvest feast shared by the English colonists (Pilgrims) of Plymouth and the Wampanoag people. The American holiday is particularly rich in legend and symbolism, and the traditional fare of the Thanksgiving meal typically includes turkey, bread stuffing, potatoes, cranberries, and pumpkin pie. With respect to vehicular travel, the holiday is often the busiest of the year, as family members gather with one another.

AND THIS IS THE REST OF THE STORY.

Yeah, it was made up. It was Abraham Lincoln who used the theme of Pilgrims and Indians eating happily together. He was trying to calm things down during the Civil War when people were divided. It was like a nice unity story.

Yes, it was public relations. It's kind of genius, in a way, to get people to sit down and eat dinner together. Families were divided during the Civil War.

So, what really happened?

We made a treaty. The leader of our nation at the time—Yellow Feather Oasmeequin (Massasoit) made a treaty with (John) Carver [the first governor of the colony]. They elected an official while they were still on the boat. They had their charter. They were still under the jurisdiction of the king [of England]—at least that's what they told us. So they couldn't make a treaty for a boatload of people, so they made a treaty between two nations—England and the Wampanoag Nation.

It basically said we'd let them be there and we would protect them against any enemies, and they would protect us from any of ours.

So, the Pilgrims didn't invite the Wampanoags to sit down and eat turkey and drink

Ah, no. Well, let's put it this way. People did eat together [but not in what is portrayed as "the first Thanksgiving"]. It was our homeland and our territory, and we walked all through their villages all the time. The differences in how they behaved, how they ate, how they prepared things were a lot for both cultures to work with each other.

So, you did eat together sometimes, but not at the legendary Thanksgiving meal.

No. We were there for days. And this is another thing: We give thanks more than once a year in formal ceremonies for different season, for the green corn thanksgiving, for the arrival of certain fish species, whales, the first snow, our new year in May—there are so many ceremonies, and I think most cultures have similar traditions. It's not a foreign concept and I think human beings who recognize greater spirit than they would have to say thank you in some formal way.

So, in reading this story of the first Thanksgiving and what really happened I think Abraham Lincoln was a smart man to put together the story of the first Thanksgiving the colonists shared with the Wampanoag people. The story united people during the Civil War and since then.

We as a country get together at Thanksgiving and give thanks to our family and friends for what we have and what our country has given to us. I know in these hard times it is not easy to give thanks, but we must remember that we are all family and that we are "ONE NATION UNDER GOD, INDIVISIBLE, WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL."

I hope that all of you in our Desertscape Community spend time with your family and friends this year at Thanksgiving time and enjoy each other's company and friendship.

Sincerely,
Sheri Kramer

FROM YOUR ACTIVITIES DIRECTOR, Gail Brazell

Fall is upon us and doesn't it feel nice. Time to enjoy being outside and to welcome our winter visitors back. Some outdoor activities are friendly competitions with pickle ball and for those who are more prone to inside activities there are horse races, bingo, and even chair exercises. Check your calendar on the back of your newsletter for days and times. The pool is open with water exercise each morning at ten o'clock come and join your friends and meet new neighbors.

And for those that are more prone to inside activities, their fun horse races, bingo, and even chair exercises. Check your calendar on the back of your newsletter for days and times. The pool is open with water exercise each morning at 10 AM. Come and join your friends and neighbors. You just might meet some new people. All are welcome.

November Home of the Month

We are proud to recognize Edward in lot B125 as our Home of the Month for November.

(602)327-8125.

WOMEN'S CLUB PRESIDENT, Sheri Kramer

On Monday October 13th the Women's Club had a Open House for all the women residents in Desertscape. The women that attended were served a light dinner and were given a presentation of what the Women's Club was all about and what we did in the community throughout the year.

Moving on to November the Women's Club is planning on a WINE AND CHEESE NIGHT.

The date of this event is November 15 2025, from 5:30 pm to we run out of wine. (5:30pm to 8:00pm)

In the past the turn out for our Wine and Cheese night have been really good. We are hoping this event will be the same.

December 13th will be the Women's Club Bake Sale. The Bake Sale is held each year in the clubhouse and all baked goods are homemade and baked by our Women's Club members.

The proceeds from this sale go to our non-profit organizations that the Women's Club contribute to each year.

Autumn Harvest Beef Stew: An Incredible Essential Recipe for Fall

AUTHOR: CHEF ELLIE GRACE | TOTAL TIME: 2 HOURS 30 MINUTES

Ingredients

- 2 pounds beef chuck, cut into 1-inch cubes
- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 large onion, diced
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 4 cups beef broth
- 2 cups carrots, sliced
- 2 cups potatoes, diced
- 1 cup parsnips, diced
- 1 cup celery, diced
- 1 tablespoon tomato paste
- 2 teaspoons dried thyme
- 1 teaspoon dried rosemary
- 1 bay leaf
- Salt and pepper, to taste
- Fresh parsley, chopped (for garnish)

Step-by-Step Instructions

Making Autumn Harvest Beef Stew is straightforward if you follow these steps:

1. Brown the Beef: Heat olive oil in a large pot over medium-high heat. Add beef cubes in batches to avoid overcrowding. Sear until browned on all sides. Remove and set aside.
2. Sauté Aromatics: In the same pot, add the diced onion and garlic. Sauté for 3–4 minutes until the onion becomes translucent.
3. Add Tomato Paste: Stir in tomato paste and cook for an additional minute, allowing it to caramelize slightly and enhance its flavor.
4. Deglaze: Pour in a splash of beef broth. Scrape the bottom of the pot to release any browned bits. This adds flavor to the stew.
5. Return Beef: Add the browned beef back into the pot along with the remaining beef broth.
6. Add Vegetables: Incorporate carrots, potatoes, parsnips, and celery into the mixture.
7. Season: Add dried thyme, rosemary, bay leaf, and season with salt and pepper.
8. Simmer: Bring to a boil, then reduce heat to low. Cover and let the stew simmer for about 2 hours or until the beef is tender.
9. Adjust Seasoning: Taste and adjust seasoning as necessary, removing the bay leaf before serving.
10. Garnish: Serve hot, garnished with fresh parsley for a touch of color.

By following these clear steps, you ensure that your Autumn Harvest Beef Stew turns out rich in flavor and delightful in every bite.

NOTE FROM YOUR DESERTSCAPE SALES ASSOCIATE, Twila Dawson

Oh my gosh, how can it be November already? What a wonderful season we have ahead of us, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year all mixed with perfect weather in this beautiful state of Arizona that we live in. What more could we ask for?

We have a few new residents that have purchased homes in our community over the summer and more on the books ready to move in.

Renovations are now completed, and you have no excuse not to refer family or friends to DesertScape. I have some really good deals on New Homes and preowned. Remember, anyone that buys a brand-new home will get 18 months of free space rent and if you happen to refer them you receive $2500 let's make that work for you!

Warmly,

"I Just Hiked Into the Grand Canyon 18 Months Ago I Had a Hard Time Just Walking"

"I have had very positive results working with Dr. Sartz! I came to his office a little over a year ago with severe neuropathy. The neurologist had no strategy to help me. I couldn't balance myself on one foot. Now I can stand minutes at a time on each foot. Tingling previously went from toes to knee. Now just a tiny bit of tingling on the tips of my toes on right foot. My quality of life has greatly improved as I like sports and dancing. Also, he is very honest. He will not exaggerate or give you false hope. I strongly encourage anyone with neuropathy to see Dr. Sartz!"
