"SHARING GIFTS & DEEPENING FRIENDSHIPS"

Do you realized many of us have known each other for a decade? We have been sharing a journey on a path of enlightenment and spiritual growth. During our previous retreats, we have laughed, cried, learned and developed lasting connections. During this year's retreat, I have allocated time for deeper connection through interactive group activities.

It is my vision that we will spend quality time with each other this year. It can be as simple as sharing a conversation with a friend, spending quiet time journaling together, enjoying a visit to a favorite metaphysical shop or sharing a personal gift. This can be a time of developing a deeper connection with one another and also with yourself.

Those who wish to share their metaphysical and spiritual gifts may feel free to bring whatever is needed for their modality. We have readers, artists, healthcare professionals, Reiki and Chakra practitioners, essential oil specialists, ladies with unique life experiences and a huge reservoir of life experience.

My wish for you is that you experience a transformational weekend. May your connections deepen and may you be the spark in someone else's darkness. Let's lift each other up and illuminate the Baladerry, Gettysburg and the world with LOVE!

GROUP ACTIVITIES

"Let's Create Our Own Journals" with DEZRA ANDERSON

Dezra will lead us through the steps of altering a book transforming it from a discarded item on its way to becoming trash to a unique, personalized journal handcrafted by you. Altered books start with an existing book, which serves as the foundation for the journal. We will use fabric and paper to cut, tear, fold, ink, stamp, and glue to reinvent it. We will create new signatures using a variety of papers and learn how to bind them into your one-of-a-kind journal. The creation process will be split across 2 days. Glue needs time to dry!

Supplies will be provided. Feel free to bring any papers or embellishment from your own stash.

DEZRA ANDERSON

Certified Art4Healing Facilitator and Certified Creativity Fit Coach

"I have been creating a meditative painting practice for myself that allows me to calm my mind and tune in to my intuition. I express my feelings and intentions with color and abstract marks on canvas. This form of meditation allows my mind to quiet while I let my intuition guide me to the next color or mark on the canvas. The objective is to let go, listen, and feel to create whatever comes through."

"My goal is to hold a space for myself and others to return to the joy of painting for no other reason than creative expression, just like when we were all in kindergarten. The space I am holding is free of judgement and expectations, and is full of love, acceptance, and connectedness. I am holding space for you to create your future. I am holding space for us to connect through art with ourselves and others."
