"SHARING GIFTS & DEEPENING FRIENDSHIPS"

Do you realized many of us have known each other for a decade? We have been sharing a journey on a path of enlightenment and spiritual growth. During our previous retreats, we have laughed, cried, learned and developed lasting connections. During this year's retreat, I have allocated time for deeper connection through interactive group activities.

It is my vision that we will spend quality time with each other this year. It can be as simple as sharing a conversation with a friend, spending quiet time journaling together, enjoying a visit to a favorite metaphysical shop or sharing a personal gift. This can be a time of developing a deeper connection with one another and also with yourself.

Those who wish to share their metaphysical and spiritual gifts may feel free to bring whatever is needed for their modality. We have readers, artists, healthcare professionals, Reiki and Chakra practitioners, essential oil specialists, ladies with unique life experiences and a huge reservoir of life experience.

My wish for you is that you experience a transformational weekend. May your connections deepen and may you be the spark in someone else's darkness. Let's lift each other up and illuminate the Baladerry, Gettysburg and the world with LOVE!

“Release Your Shadow – Reclaim Your Light, Shadow Work Clinic” with Mitch Adams

We all have traits that we’re proud of, and traits that we don’t feel so confident about. Some of these traits may trigger or embarrass us, so we hide them from public view. These parts make up your shadow self, and it longs to be heard. However, it’s not always easy to come to terms with our shadow selves. Many people tend to repress those hidden parts of themselves to avoid having to confront that darker side. Even though the shadow still exists, it gets pushed back and forgotten. But repressing your inner shadow can have dangerous consequences. Most often, the shadow manifests as our triggers — emotional reactions that we haven’t fully dealt with but bubble up to the surface under the right (wrong) circumstances. It takes training, self-awareness, guidance, and courage to help you face your shadow self in a healthy way. This is exactly why shadow work exists. Shadow work is designed to help you integrate and accept every single part of yourself so that you can live and thrive with more clarity and authenticity. Let’s explore what shadow work means, how you can benefit from it, and how you can start practicing shadow work for yourself.

Mitch is a Level III Reiki Master Teacher/Practitioner. His intuitive gifts presented themselves from an early age, and he now uses his over 35 years of experience, as well as 15 years of Reiki knowledge, to help people on their spiritual journey. He specializes in removing energy blocks that keep people from being in alignment with their soul. Coming from over 30 years in corporate life and a number of years of senior leadership in business, along with extra-curricular activity, Mitch is very familiar with the stress in today's fast paced world. His intent is to deliver Reiki as a foundation and lifestyle to manage, nourish, thrive and live fully.

Mitch, also manages the Spirit Guide Workshops and individual sessions within ReikiSpace and Learning Place. This workshop will teach you about the many different types of guides that are available to you, help you to create a sacred environment to begin to communicate with them and give you some simple rituals to welcome their energy forward.

Recently, he has added a life-long dream of completing the Level 1-3 Psychic Mediumship and Intuitive Development. This platform helps him help his clients find a deeper peace and calmness.

As the sound vibrations wash over you, they help to release tension, clear blocked, energy, and encourage a deep state of relaxation and meditation. Each note and tone works to recalibrate your body's natural frequencies, promoting healing, stress reduction, and a profound sense of peace.

GROUP ACTIVITIES

“Guided Meditation for Signs & Intention Setting, Free-Writing Meditation, Meditative Art Project” with Jofa M. Kauffman

Jofa will guide you through meditative activities designed to connect for higher guidance and providing a space to center yourself to be present in the moment.

The “Guided Meditation for Signs and Intention Setting” will be facilitated on our first night of the retreat and is designed to ask a specific question of your guides or higher self. You will designate specific signs you hope to see for your answer. You can also clarify your intentions for the retreat.

During our “Free-Writing Meditation”, you will be asked to pick a topic or question for which you would like higher guidance. Time will be provided for free-writing – this activity helps to quiet the logical brain and allow a clear channel for higher guidance.

Our interactive “Meditation Art Project” is designed to focus on the moment through an art activity. We will be creating bejeweled journals. Initially, the activity will be done in silence and then time will be provided to complete your journal during interactive fellowship with your fellow retreat attendees.

Jofa M. Kauffman is a professional numerologist and the owner of Spirited Events by Jofa, a spiritual/metaphysical/paranormal event business. In 2014, Jofa started Spirited Events by Jofa and began offering unique and intimate spiritual, metaphysical and paranormal events with the occasional fun girls weekend events thrown in there. Having been an insurance professional for over 30 years including Executive Director of a physician owned PPO and CEO of a third-party administrator, one day she realized she wanted more out of life. Having run-the-course in the insurance industry, she had an overwhelming desire to explore metaphysics, spirituality and the paranormal. Hence, Spirited Events by Jofa was born. Jofa had her own spiritual journey while searching to find her life purpose utilizing vision boards, mediums, psychics, numerology, astrology, Human Design, Gene Keys, hand and fingerprint analysis, past life regressions and a lot of deep meditation and soul searching. The journey has been both revealing and validating. Using her empathic gift and intuitiveness, Jofa derives deep satisfaction in helping others finding their own spiritual paths and truths. Over the years, she has worked with experienced paranormal investigators and gifted psychic/mediums learning the ins and outs of paranormal investigation. She’s been fortunate to visit many notorious haunted locations as well as assisting those who have experienced unknown activity in their own homes and workplaces. Full-bodied apparitions, shadow figures, white mists, disembodied voices and footsteps are just part of her paranormal experiences. Electronic Voice Phenomena (EVP) is her favorite way to gather disembodied voices on recordings.
