As an Independent Birth Worker, the maternal health support services offered are solely for the purpose of helping a mother to attain the birth outcome “she/they” desire; by providing evidence based information, indigenous holistic care and spiritual support. At all times your birth outcome is your responsibility. It is our trusting that when given valid facts, proper nourishment; mentally, emotionally, physically and spiritually; the mother will gain insight to be able to manage a well progressing pregnancy, birth her way with courage and without fear of outcome. The maternal health support services provided by Protector of the Womb, Inc. are not to be substituted for a licensed physician’s (of the State Medical Boards) advice. The support services are complimentary maternal health alternatives. As a consultant, we are aiding in the most optimal outcome for your birth.

You hereby request and consent to receiving holistic maternal health support services including but not limited to Reproductive Health education and wellness services, Home Childbirth Preparation Sessions, Prenatal Health Assessments, Labor & Birth Support, Phone & Email Support, Birth Provider Collaborations and Postpartum Support including Self-care rituals, Breastfeeding Support, Well Womb Check-ups, Nutrition advice, Newborn Care, Motherhood Mentoring, and Sister Life Coaching.

The possible benefits of receiving holistic maternal support includes but are not limited to (according to the U.S. Maternal Medical Data): pregnant women are more likely to give birth spontaneously without the use of intervention of labor inducing drugs, less likely to give birth via caesarean or with a vacuum or forceps, less likely to use pain medications, less episiotomies, more likely to be satisfied with the birth experience, had slightly shorter labors. Accepting a consultant’s wisdom may reduce the likelihood of complications, the need for pain medication, stress of the experience, and reducing anxiety of mother and partner. You may experience higher self-esteem, be mentally prepared for the birth process, feel more in control of your birth, breastfeed more successfully, no signs of depression and gain an excellent resource.

The Consultant reserves the right to terminate or refuse its services to any person posing a health or safety threat or for any inappropriate behaviors.

You are expected to pay for services provided by Protector of the Womb, Inc. prior to your birth and(/or) completion of wellness services. Self-pay Only. Insurance not accepted.

An invoice is given upon completion of service to provide to your insurance company should they reimburse for Birth/Postpartum Doula or Certified Lactation Counselor services. Inquire if you qualify for a discounted rate due to income level. Payment plans accepted.
