8. The clubhouse must be completely cleaned immediately after use.
9. Owners and residents are responsible for any and all damage caused to the clubhouse while in use or during a reservation.
10. All persons using the clubhouse do so at their own risk; the Association, the Board, and the Manager assume no responsibility for accidents or injuries to person, or damage to personal property.

VIII. Assessment Payment and Collection

Assessments are the lifeblood of the Association. Without them, the Association cannot fulfill its legal obligations and responsibilities. As a result, it is necessary for the Association to adopt an effective and uniform policy for the payment and collection of Assessments.

1. Assessments. Regular (annual) Assessments are levied monthly by the Association and are due and payable on the first day of each month. Other Assessments may be levied as allowed by the Declaration and are due and payable as provided by the Association.
2. Late Fee. There is hereby levied a late fee of THIRTY-FIVE DOLLARS ($35.00) against any Lot for any Assessment which is not paid in full within fifteen (15) days after the date such Assessment is due. Late fees shall accrue each month until the Assessment, including all late fees, interests, and other costs and fees, are paid in full.
3. Interest. All Assessments not paid on or before fifteen (15) days after the date when first due shall also accrue interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum.

4. Notice. If any Assessment remains unpaid by an Owner for more than thirty (30) days from the due date for its payment, the Association may send a notice to the Owner indicating the amount due, including notice of the late fees and interest.
5. Collection. If any Assessment remains unpaid by the Owner for more than sixty (60) days from the due date for its payment, the Board may turn it over for collection to the Association's attorney who may file suit for a money judgment, unless the Board, after recommendation by attorney, determines that lien foreclosure is advisable under the circumstances. In such cases, the attorney may file a lawsuit for a money judgment, for foreclosure, or for both a money judgment and foreclosure, as permitted by applicable law.
6. Legal Fees and Costs. All legal fees and costs incurred in the collection of a delinquent Assessment shall be assessed against the delinquent Owner and shall be collected as an individual Assessments as provided in the Declaration, regardless of whether a lawsuit or foreclosure action is filed.
7. Further Action. The Association may also, in the discretion of the Board, take further action in the collection of unpaid Assessments as permitted by the Governing Documents or applicable law including, but not limited to, loss of voting rights; the termination of utility service paid for by the Association out of assessments; and access to and use of Common Areas available to Owners and, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, terminated the rights of any Owners to receive such benefits or services until the correction of any violation covered by such rule has occurred, including payment in full of all outstanding Assessments.

IX. Miscellaneous Rules

1. The use of ATVs, go-karts, and other similar recreational vehicles is strictly prohibited throughout the Project.
2. Each Owner shall provide the Board or the Manager with any and all telephone numbers and email addresses at which he or she may be reached. This information will be used for Association purposes only, not for any commercial purpose.
3. All other provisions of the Declaration or Bylaws, or any amendments thereto, shall be complied with.

General Violation Fine Schedules

Per Occurrence Violations

Except where specifically stated above, fines for violating any of the foregoing rules, regulations, or policies may be levied by the Association as follow:

- 1st Offense: Warning Letter
- 2nd Offense: $75 Fine
- 3rd Offense: $100 Fine
- 4th and each subsequent Offense: $125 Fine

Continuing Violations

A continuous violation is a violation that persists until corrective action is taken. The Board or the Manager may levy a fine for a continuous violation remaining uncured by the deadline imposed by the Board or the Manager (such deadline shall be at least 48 hours). Furthermore, additional fines may be levied every ten (10) days thereafter until the violation is cured. Unless specifically stated above for an individual rule, the amount of the fine will be increased at each 10-day increment as follows:

- 1st Offense = Warning Letter and Opportunity to Cure of at least 48 hours;
- If not cured within the deadline established in the warning letter, a fine of $75 may be levied;
- If not cured within 10 days of the levying of the $75 fine, an additional $100 fine may be levied;
- If not cured within 10 days of the levying of the $100 fine, an additional $125 fine may be levied;
- The $125 fine may continue to be levied every 10 days thereafter until the violation is cured.

If the same continuous violation is repeated anytime within the next twelve (12) months, the initial fine shall be $125. The $125 fine may be levied every 10 days thereafter until cured.

Rules Enforcement Process

1. Complaint. A resident may file a written complaint with the Board or the Manager regarding a violation of the Declaration, Bylaws, or Rules by another Owner or Guest.
2. Investigation. After receiving a complaint, the Board or the Manager may investigate the complaint and determine if it is valid. If the Board or the Manager witnesses a violation, they may proceed to #3 below.
3. Violation and Notice. If the Board or the Manager believes that a violation has occurred or is continuing to occur, the Board or the Manager shall send notice of the violation to the responsible Owner. The notice will provide that the Board or the Manager may assess fines against the Owner if: (1) the violation is repeated anytime within the next twelve (12) months, or (2) a continuing violation is not cured. If the violation is a continuing violation, then the notice shall give the Owner at least 48 hours to cure the violation.
4. Fines. The Board or the Manager may impose fines outlined above if the violation is repeated anytime within the next twelve (12) months or if the violation is not cured or ceased within the time specified in the notice described in paragraph 3. For continuing violations remaining uncured, fines may continue to be levied as provided herein or as directed in the notice from the Association, but no more frequently than every 10 days.
5. Hearing. The responsible Owner has the right to request an informal hearing with the Board within thirty (30) days from the date the notice is provided to the Owner stating that a fine has been assessed by the Association. If requested, the Owner may present testimony or evidence regarding the violation at the next Board meeting.

Repeat Violations

As provided above, the Board or the Manager may impose fines outlined herein if the violation is repeated anytime within the next twelve (12) months. Owners who repeat any violation during this time period are not entitled to an additional hearing, regardless of whether or not the Owner participated in a hearing as a result of the first violation. For such repeat violations, the Board or the Manager may automatically begin fines as outlined above.

Other Legal Remedies

1. Board Actions. In addition to levying fines, action by the Board may include, but need not be limited to:
 - a. Seeking injunctive or declaratory relief action against any alleged offending Owner, Guest, or other occupant of the Owner’s property; and/or
 - b. Taking immediate legal action, as the Board finds reasonably necessary, to stop conduct which it determines is in violation of the Declaration, Bylaws, Rules, or applicable state or federal law.

2. Alternative Resolution. Nothing herein shall preclude the Board or the Manager, as authorized by the Board, from first attempting to resolve a matter either by an informal meeting or telephone call with, or email, or warning letter to the alleged offending Owner or Guest.

Owner Responsibility for Tenants, Guests, Invitees, etc.

Owners shall be responsible for the conduct of and the violations of any renter, tenant invitee, guest, or family member who violates any portion of the Declaration, Bylaws, or these Rules, including but not limited to, paying all fines or costs imposed by the Association as a result of the renter, tenant, invitee, guest, or family member’s actions or behavior. All renters and tenants are jointly and severally liable with their landlord/Owner for violations and resulting fines or costs.

Association Notices

Any notice required or permitted to be given by the Association to any Owner or Guest under these Rules shall be deemed to have been properly furnished if delivered in a manner allowed by the Declaration or the Act.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that:

1. The foregoing Rules are adopted by the Board of Directors.

2. Each Owner and/or occupant of a Lot shall be responsible for notifying any household member, renter, guest, or other visitor of the restrictions, limitations, and prohibitions contained above.
