

Postcards from Mia's Suitcase – First Edition

November 2025

Hi friends!

Welcome to the very first issue of Postcards from Mia's Suitcase — our cozy corner of travel magic, where we share quick stories, park tips, and behind-the-scenes moments from our multi-generational adventures. Whether you're planning your next Disney trip, dreaming of Universal's new worlds, or just need a dose of pixie dust between school runs, we're so happy you're here!

This Week's Postcard from Mia

Hi! It's me, Mia! Guess what? We've started planning next summer's trip. I plan to hug both Minnie AND Daisy. I bet Daisy will tell me she liked my sparkly shoes! Granny said my smile will be brighter than the fireworks.

Mia's Mini Tip: Always have your autograph book and a pen ready — princesses and pals love signing with sparkly markers!

From Mom's Planner: Keeping Sane in the Parks

Jessica here! For anyone heading to Disney soon — remember, mobile ordering is your best friend. I place our lunch order while we're in line for a ride, and by the time we exit, it's ready. Less waiting, more magic!

Pro Tip: Order ahead on the My Disney Experience app between 11:00–11:30 a.m. to beat the lunch rush.

Granny's Wisdom Corner

Granny Cindy says: “Don't race through the magic — rest in it.”

We're adding “rest stops” into every itinerary now — shaded benches, cool drinks, and a chance to just watch the smiles go by.

On Our Radar: Epic Universe Is Here!

Universal's Epic Universe opened in May 2025! Mia's already played in Super Nintendo World. Stay tuned — we'll be visiting again and sharing early travel tips!
