RECLAIMED ANTIQUE BARNWOOD

Rustic Country Heirlooms

Barns of centuries past were the backbone of our country – offering shelter for livestock, and crops. At Rustic Country Heirlooms, we honor the great heritage of the American settlers who first timbered this land by reclaiming antique barnwood to create beautiful furniture, built to enjoy forever.

Just as our ancestors pegged barns together by hand, we painstakingly reclaim old growth barnwood – making sure to retain its original patina and the unique characteristics gained through decades of exposure to the elements. Then the wood is lovingly handcrafted into heirloom-quality furniture. Each piece of RCH furniture has its own unique characteristics. Every creation a bit of history – worthy of respect, and designed to live on for generations.
