

The Secret Scrap Challenge

May - December 2025

Project Overview

Welcome to the Secret Scrap Challenge - a different kind of quilting adventure! This isn't about starting new projects or following complex patterns. Instead, we're adding a little magic to the quilting projects you're already making.

How it Works

Each month from May through December 2025, you'll receive a new "secret scrap" prompt. Your challenge is to incorporate this element somewhere in whatever project you're currently working on. The element should be unexpected but intentional - adding meaning, visual interest, or a bit of surprise to your work.

Monthly Prompts

- May: First Project Flashback
- June: Pattern Clash
- July: Second Life Stories
- August: Temperature Turn
- September: Holiday Hidden
- October: Metallic Moment
- November: Cherished Charm
- December: Scale Shifter

The Spirit of the Challenge

This challenge is about thoughtful making, telling stories, & creating visual interest in unexpected ways.

There's no right or wrong way to participate. The goal is to enhance your existing quilting practice, not add stress or additional projects to your list.
