

Oklahoma Supreme Court Judicial Retention

Three of the most anti-conservative, pro-abortion judges are up for retention votes. If you agree with their rulings, you would vote “Yes” to retain them. If you disagree with their rulings and believe they should be removed from their positions, you would vote “No”.

JAMES E. EDMONDSON

2003 — Current

Appointed by Democrat Governor, Brad Henry

- Voted to invalidate three of Oklahoma’s existing Pro-Life laws.
- Forced the removal of the Ten Commandments Statue from the Oklahoma State Capital
- Voted to block a church-based charter school from receiving state funds, asserting taxpayer’s dollars may only be used for secular atheistic education.
- Ruled against Oklahoma’s election requirement demanding mail-in ballots be notarized, keeping the door open for voter fraud.
- Voted to strike down Oklahoma’s much-needed Comprehensive Lawsuit Reform Act of 2009
- Voted to kill common sense worker’s comp reform
- Struck down Oklahoma law prohibiting masked mandates for students
- On Oklahoma Council of Public Affairs’ Constitutional Conservative Scorecard, Edmondson scores a 21% and is ranked as a liberal, pro-abortion, activist judge.
