POSITION ADVERTISEMENT

CWAATSICH is a Community Controlled Health Service that is responsible for delivering comprehensive primary health care for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people residing in communities located across a large geographical region in Southwest Queensland.

Position Vacant – Clinical Care Coordinator

The Australian and Queensland Government are working together to improve access to primary care for Queenslanders and reduce pressure on hospital emergency departments. The Southwest Primary Care Pilot, Care Collective – Southwest, is part of this initiative. The locally designed pilot aims to improve integration and enhance hospital and primary health pathways.

We are looking for a self-driven experienced health care professional who can lead and manage this pilot to work in collaboration with a multidisciplinary team to provide both clinical and non-clinical care coordination and education for clients with complex health needs including non-compliant clients, based on referrals from service providers in the region. Utilising clinical skills and professional decision making to deliver client-centred, culturally safe and appropriate clinical care aligned with the Primary Health Model of Care.

To apply please provide a current resume, with a two-page response to the position description demonstrating your suitability for this role against the key responsibilities, skills and experience.

For a full Position Description please contact our Human Resources team by calling 4654 3277 or via email recruitment@cwaatsich.org.au.

Applications Close: COB 21/3/2025

CWAATSICH is an equal opportunity employer and encourages Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to apply.

Only shortlisted applicants will be contacted and only shortlisted applicants that attend an interview will be notified of the outcome.
