

“Come and work with us”

Located in South West Queensland is our Charleville clinic delivering the Healthy Outback Kids Program in collaboration with our local WQPHN. We offer you an exciting opportunity to become a key member of our team working with our kids in South West Queensland.

You will provide direct and comprehensive child health as part of our clinical team to maximise the health outcomes for people in our communities

The Position: Child and Family Health Nurse
Classification: Full-time
Location: Charleville

An attractive salary package is available for this position dependant on your qualifications and experience, including the option for generous salary sacrifice, a great team to work with and support your position.

To apply for this position please phone or email: Jessica Heinemann on 07 46 543 277 and/ or email: jessica@cwaatsich.org.au

The application package will be forwarded to you.

Please include a cover letter addressing the Selection Criteria of the position along with a detailed resume.

(Please note certified copies of qualifications a/ licences and registrations must be provided with your application)

Applications for this position will close at 5.00pm on 25th June 2019.

CWAATSICH is an equal opportunity employer