

“Come and work with us”

CWAATSICH is seeking an experienced and motivated Speech Pathologist to join our supportive multidisciplinary team located in Charleville, South West Queensland.

The Position: Speech Pathologist
Classification: Full-time
Location: Charleville QLD

This position is responsible for working in conjunction with a multi-disciplinary primary health care team in the delivery of culturally appropriate speech therapist services to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community, including rehabilitation, within a culturally sensitive environment.

To be considered for this position you must have at least a tertiary degree (or equivalent qualification) in Speech Pathology and have:

- Current financial practising membership with SPA, with Certified Practising Speech Pathologist CPSP status
- Current (and an adequate level of) Professional Indemnity Insurance
- Current CPR and First Aid certificate
- Current Class C Driver's License and ability/willingness to travel to outreach clinics
- Hold a valid Blue Card (Working with Children and young people)
- Current Medicare Provider Number or capacity to obtain
- Satisfactory National Police Check
- Current skills and knowledge in the assessment, interpretation, implementation and evaluation of Occupational Therapy plans for rehabilitation patients
- Experience in providing assessment, case management and speech pathology services to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people is highly desirable

An attractive salary package is available for this position dependant on your qualifications and experience, including the option for generous salary packaging.

To obtain an application package and apply for this position please contact Jessica Heinemann on 07 46 543 277 or email: jessica@cwaatsich.org.au

(Please note that certified copies of qualifications, licences, registrations and employment screening must be provided with your application).

Applications for this position will close at 5.00pm on 22nd November 2019