

Dr. William P. Foster

1986

Sponsored by McDonalds Corporation

McDonalds All American HS

Tallahassee, Florida

Dr. William F. Foster received the Bachelor of Music Education degree from the University of Kansas and the Master of Arts degree from Wayne State University. He earned the Educational Doctorate from Columbia University. Among his experiences during his esteem career have included: Lincoln High School; Ft. Valley State University; Tuskegee Institute; and Florida A & M University. He also serves as the Director for the McDonalds All American High School Band. He is a recipient of the prestigious Distinguished Service to Music Medal sponsored by Kappa Kappa Psi National Professional Fraternity for Band. Under his direction, the Florida A & M University Band is considered one of the finest marching ensembles in the nation. Dr. Foster Florida A & M University serves as the Chairman for the Department of Music. The McDonalds All American High School is composed of a select group of musicians from each state in the nation. They are among the nations finest and can be seen regularly at the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City.