

Featured Artist Julie Campbell...

I have recently started painting again after several years and have photos of my early and recent artwork. I was interested in art in high school and in my early twenties. I then had a career as a veterinarian for twenty plus years. My love of animals inspires most of my artwork. The mediums I primarily work with are soft pastels and watercolors. However, I recently have worked with gourd art, mostly with burning and sculpting gourds.