

Safety and Health Policy and Procedures

Proofing Behaviors Canine Obedience LLC 2020

Safety Rules for Proofing Behaviors Canine Obedience LLC 2020

1. It is the client's responsibility that all dog(s) must have complete proof of vaccination records certified by your veterinarian prior to training, a copy of vaccination record will be received by Proofing Behaviors Canine Obedience LLC
2. It is the client's responsibility to verify all equipment for proper fit, use and follows Positive Reinforcement Fear Free Training during lessons
3. It is the client's responsibility when children under the age of 18 are involved to monitor, provide and follow all safety, health policies and procedures established by Proofing Behaviors Canine Obedience LLC
4. It is the client's responsibility to wear proper clothing footwear and any or all garments to participate in class.
5. It is the client's responsibility to follow all instructed leash handling procedures
6. It is the client's responsibility to never let go of the leash
7. It is the client's responsibility in group classes or private lessons to follow a proper distance of 6 feet apart from another client, dog(s) during training lessons
Note there will be times when working closer than 6 feet deemed to be necessary in those time(s) please follow health policy.
8. It is the client's responsibility to NEVER force a dog into a behavior
9. It is the client's responsibility to learn, recognize and identify stress in themselves or their dog(s) and remove themselves or the dog(s) from lesson(s).

Health Rules for Proofing Behaviors Canine Obedience LLC 2020

Risk categories of Exposure to virus and bacteria

Medium Exposure Risk

Lower Exposure Risk

The client has certified to reduce the risk of contracting and/or spreading viruses, bacteria and disease

- Trainer/Client will be diligent in identifying any sign of illness or disease in you and your dog
- If illness occurs Trainer/ Client will reschedule following Terms and Condition
- Trainer/ Client will follow proper hygiene guidelines including your dog
- Trainer/Client will verify their dog(s) is on a broad-spectrum deworming product include a dewormer
- Trainer/Client will wear follow PPE guidelines as described in Covid 19 Policy and Procedures
- Trainer/Client will clean and disinfect Training facility, house and backyard
- Trainer/Client will clean up feces after your dog goes to the bathroom
- Trainer/Client will Curb your dog to keep your community clean
- Trainer/Client will properly dispose of all cleaning items, PPE, trash and feces

Note due to medical issues James E Salvino will not wear a mask or gloves when training or interacting with clients and their dog(s).

Note James E Salvino will follow the Established Safety and Health program established for Proofing Behaviors Canine Obedience.

I the client have Read,Signed and Agrees to follow Safety and Health Policy and Procedures of Proofing Behaviors Canine Obedience LLC 2020

Trainer/ Client Signature and Date:
