tidwell81@gmail.co,

Sunday, September 18th – 12:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Grab your lawn chair and join the party with a line-up of live musicians playing throughout the day on the west porch of Deere-Wiman House, and the gazebo in the gardens of Butterworth Center.

Food trucks will serve up a variety of fun, festive and spicy food. Eat in Butterworth Center or use our stand-up bistro tables on the terrace or in the garden.

Drop-in to ask the expert with our historic preservation series in the Deere-Wiman House. Additional talks will be in the Carriage house by local preservationists. Stop in to see Brandon Tidwell at 3:15 p.m. speak about the MPS.

Gretchen Small, Director of Programs and Collections, will share in the Butterworth Center Library on the history of the Deere-Wiman House as we celebrate its 150th year. Listen to an organ performance in the Butterworth music room. Enjoy a piece of anniversary cake as we celebrate the long history of the home in our community.

Go underground with the Butterworth Center tunnel tour leading you from Butterworth Center to the Education Center where you will also be able to tour Mr. Butterworth's personal den and chauffeur's apartment.

Examine antique and classic cars on our site by local car clubs.

Event is rain or shine. See Butterworth Center website for more details.

Please fill out the following and return in the enclosed Envelope.
